

WEAVER AND WYMAN SCORE A GREAT VICTORY

POSITION OF SOLICITOR NOT UPHOLD BY COURT

Judge Hole Decides the Wyman Controversy Adversely to Attorney Davidson.

THE ACTION WAS BROUGHT PREMATURELY

Lisbon, December 3.—(Special).—In an opinion given in common pleas court here this morning, Judge W. W. Hole decided the East Liverpool chief of police controversy in favor of the defendants, Mayor W. A. Weaver and the board of public safety, against whom suit was brought by Solicitor George E. Davidson, to prevent the appointment of John W. Wyman as chief of police. A restraining order was asked on the ground that under the new code Wyman was not a member of the classified service, and therefore ineligible. The case has attracted wide attention throughout the state.

Solicitor Davidson was present when the decision was given and at once served notice of appeal to the circuit court.

After recapitulating the allegations in the petition and the answer of the defendants, Judge Hole gave his decision, the full text of which follows: "Counsel on both sides took some time during the arguments of the case to explain to the court the state of public and party feeling existing at East Liverpool over the questions involved in this case, but from the apologetic manner in which both counsel referred to this state of feeling I scarcely think that counsel on either side expected the court to pay any attention to this matter, but only to consider the legal and equitable questions raised by the pleadings in this case, and this I shall endeavor to do.

THE CONTENTION OF THE PLAINTIFF.

"In order that the plaintiff should be entitled to a restraining order as prayed for, it must appear that the defendants, or some of them, threatened to do acts which will amount to an abuse of the corporate power conferred upon said municipality. It devolves, therefore, upon the plaintiff to produce evidence by which it may clearly appear:

"First—That the said John Wyman is ineligible to appointment to the office of chief of police of the city of East Liverpool; and

"Second—That the members of the board of public safety and the mayor are threatening to take such steps as will result in his being inducted into said office in spite of his being ineligible to the same.

"So far as this action is directed against the members of the board of public safety, who have no power to appoint any one to office, the remedy sought is to enjoin them from certifying the name of John W. Wyman for the mayor for appointment.

"The claim made by plaintiff is that said John W. Wyman is ineligible to hold said office for the following reasons:

"First—That there were personal solicitations made in his behalf to the appointing power, which solicitations disqualified him from competing at any examination for appointments for and during the term of one year thereafter.

WYMAN IS NOT ON CLASSIFIED LIST.

"Second—That the said John W. Wyman is ineligible to take and hold said office, for the reason that under the law the chief of police must be appointed from the classified list of the police department, and the said Wyman is not upon said list.

"Third—That the said John W. Wyman is ineligible because the law requires that in all cases where it is practicable that vacancies in an office shall be filled by promotion, and that it is practicable in this case to fill the office of chief of police by promotion of one of the patrolmen.

"Fourth—It is further claimed that the said John W. Wyman cannot be appointed chief of police for the reason that under the law no person serving in the police or fire department at the time the municipal code went into effect can be removed or reduced in rank or pay, and that inasmuch as the city council has so organized the department as to provide for only seven patrolmen and one night watchman, that some one of the eight patrolmen holding office at the time said act went into effect, must either be promoted to the office of chief of police, or some one of said patrolmen must be reduced to the rank of night policeman or station house keeper, and that thereby the law would be violated.

NO EVIDENCE OF ANY SOLICITATION.

"So far as the first claim is concerned; that is, that personal solicitations were made in behalf of John Wyman, the court intimated at the time of the hearing that there was not evidence sufficient to substantiate this claim, and upon a careful review of the matter, I have found no reason to change my opinion.

"Practically the only testimony upon that subject was the testimony of Charles Gill, who stated that the mayor on the day that Wyman was appointed as temporary chief of police, said to him in explaining why Gill had not been appointed, that there had been great pressure brought to bear upon him. It did not clearly appear from the testimony whether the pressure was against the appointment of Gill, or in favor of the appointment of Wyman, or both. There was no evidence to show what this pressure was—whether it consisted of solicitations in behalf of Mr. Wyman or some other kind of pressure—and in a case of this kind the court cannot infer that unlawful solicitations were made, but the fact must be clearly shown by the party making such claims. Furthermore, it does not appear that these solicitations, if made, were for anything more than the appointment of some one as temporary chief of police, and not as a permanent incumbent of that office.

WHAT IS MEANT BY CLASSIFIED LIST

"Coming now to the second claim, that is, that Wyman is ineligible because he is not upon the classified list of the police department, it appears that counsel are at variance as to what is meant by the words, 'classified list,' as used in the last clause of section 149 of the code, which reads, 'The chief of police shall be appointed from the classified list of said department.'

"Counsel for plaintiff insists that the classified list from which the appointment must be made is the list referred to in section 158 of the municipal code, which reads as follows:

"The board of public safety shall within 30 days after the organization of such board, classify all offices and places of appointment and employment in each city in the department of public safety, with reference to the examinations hereinafter provided for. The offices, employment and places so classified by the said board of public safety shall constitute the classified service of the department of said city and no appointments to such places shall be made except under and according to the rules hereinafter mentioned.

REASONABLE GROUNDS FOR DISAGREEMENT

"Immediately upon the classification of such department, such board shall furnish to the mayor a list of all offices, employment and places in any way connected with such department within said classified service, with the names of the incumbents, their compensation and the nature of the duties; and said board shall from time to time promptly furnish to the said mayor in writing at his request all other information desired by him for the proper fulfillment of his duties."

"On the other hand, counsel for defendants claim that the list referred to in section 149 is the list contained on the register referred to in section 164 of the code, which reads as follows:

"From the results of the examinations made by said board, said board shall prepare a register for each grade or class of positions in the classified service of such city, of the names of persons whose general average standing upon such examinations for such grade is not less than the minimum fixed by the rules of said board and where otherwise eligible; and such persons shall take rank upon the register as candidates, in order of their relative examinations, as determined by examinations, without reference to priority of the time of examination."

NO REASON FOR NOT CERTIFYING WYMAN

"While there are reasonable grounds for this disagreement between counsel, and while section 158 standing alone would seem to warrant the contention of plaintiff's counsel, it is the duty of the court to reconcile, if possible, these various sections, and this I have endeavored to do. If we are to accept the contention of plaintiff, and say that the classified list is the list which the board of public safety furnishes to the mayor, of all offices, employment and places in any way connected with such department, within said classified service, with the names of the incumbents, their compensation, etc., then it may very well be urged that the said John W. Wyman was in this classified list, inasmuch as the list which the board certified to Mayor Weaver, giving names of patrolmen, etc., gave the name of John W. Wyman as temporary chief of police, thereby putting his name in such classified list.

Is it true that this list showed that Wyman's appointment was only temporary, but it had been made in order to fill a vacancy and was made before the board of public safety was organized; and even if the list referred to in section 149 is this list of incumbents, so made up, there seems to be no good reason, considering the fact that there had never been any office of chief of police before the enactment of the code, to say that the board had not as much right to certify his name as an incumbent as to certify the names of the incumbents who had been serving at the time of the passage of the act.

THE MEANING OF THE CERTIFIED LIST

"But, however this may be, a careful reading of the other provisions of the code has convinced me that the classified list from which an appointment is to be made, is the register or list provided for by section 164. It seems to me that this is conclusively shown by the provisions of section 166, which provides that 'When there is a vacancy the said board shall certify to said mayor the names and addresses of the three candidates standing highest upon the register for the class or grade to which said position belongs.'

"Now, it is clear that if the classified list means the list of office holders, made up of the names of those who held office at the time when the code went into effect, then the board would be powerless to act at all, if none of these incumbents took the examination, or if they took the examination and failed to pass, or passed, but were not among the three highest in rank. If the classified list meant that original list, as insisted upon by plaintiff's counsel, then there would be a vacancy forever, unless these incumbents qualified by taking the examination, which they are not bound to do, but have a right to hold their office without any such examination. Surely this was not intended by the lawmakers.

"The list provided for in section 158 refers rather to the classified service than to the classified list. And as no one can pass into office except his name go upon the register and except he be one of the three highest upon the register, the construction insisted upon by plaintiff's counsel would practically annul the whole merit of the system, if, perchance, no old incumbents of the office qualified by being examined and taking a rank sufficient to entitle them to a certificate for appointment.

PROMPT ACTION WILL BE TAKEN

Mayor and Safety Board Will Take Steps to Appoint a Police Chief.

NO SHOW OF FAVORITISM

And the Candidates Who Pass the Best Examination Will Be Certified By the Board as Eligible, the Mayor to Make His Selection.

Accepting the decision of Judge Hole in the Wyman case as final, the board of public safety and Mayor Weaver have determined to carry on the proceedings for the selection of a chief of police as fast as possible. At the meeting of the board this evening the mayor will officially notify the members that there is a vacancy in the office of chief of police and the members will take immediate steps to continue the examination of applicants for the position.

When the board was informed by Solicitor Davidson that he had filed a petition in common pleas court asking that the board be restrained from certifying the name of John Wyman to the mayor for appointment to the position, the board decided to take no further action along the line of examinations until the case was settled. They knew that there was a vacancy and were working in anticipation of filling it, but there are certain red tape measures that have to be taken before an appointment can be made, and they would not dare certify any names until it is carried out in detail.

Mayor Weaver stated soon after the decision of Judge Hole was given him that he would very likely give the proper notification to the board this evening. A member of the board said no doubt action would be taken on it immediately by a decision to complete the examinations. This will not take long, as every applicant, numbering in the neighborhood of 20, has been tested on every point except their ability in penmanship.

Though the impression is general that there is nothing possible or probable that would prevent the appointment of John Wyman as the permanent chief, it is known that if there are three applicants better qualified to fill the position than Wyman, they will be certified to the mayor. The board emphatically states there will be no partiality or favoritism.

This fact will give the public a question over which much debate can be had. However, as was shown at Lisbon during the trial, by the testimony of the members of the board, Mr. Wyman passed a highly creditable examination and if there are any three who excel him they must be almost perfect, if the test of the board is considered sufficient.

The mayor stated this morning that he did not know who would be the appointee. The chief executive, like the board, does not wish it to be understood that he intends to be partial. He intends to make the appointment which he believes will be of the most benefit to the city.

AUDITORS WILL MEET AT STATE CAPITAL

A Conference Next Week Which Will Help City Officials Who Take Part.

City Auditor Davidson received a letter yesterday from State Auditor Guilbert, of Columbus, stating that there will be a meeting of the auditors of every city in the state at Columbus on Wednesday and Thursday, December 9 and 10. The letter was the same as has been sent to all sections of the state and the recipients of them are all expected to be present at the meeting.

The object of the meeting will be to give to the auditors the proper method of conducting their work. While a number of cities, East Liverpool included, have already adopted the system accepted at the state auditor's office, the large majority of them have run the business as of old and are entirely ignorant of the proper manner. The meeting will be for the purpose of giving such instructions as are necessary, and it is thought that within a few months after the new law takes effect, so far as the auditors are concerned along this kind of work, the system will be in perfect order all over the state and there will be no trouble in the future in keeping the cities' finances comprehensible.

Auditor Davidson will attend the meeting and expects to meet brother officials from every part of the state. He will take particular pains to learn the exact manner by which all appropriations are made and he will discover the shortcomings of council and himself relative to handling the city's money.

DIVORCE IS REFUSED MRS. W. K. BUXTON

Plaintiff's Allegations of Unfaithfulness Not Proved to the Court's Satisfaction.

Lisbon, December 3.—(Special).—In the divorce and alimony case of Jennie Buxton, of East Liverpool, versus W. K. Buxton and George Kaufman, the last named a party defendant, divorce was refused in court here yesterday afternoon, Judge Hole holding the evidence was not sufficient to substantiate the charge of unfaithfulness set forth in the petition as the main ground on which divorce was asked. Alimony to the amount of all the defendant's property was awarded to the plaintiff and the case was continued as to the divorce feature.

The parties to the suit were married in East Liverpool September 17, 1888, and have three children, Bernice C. Iris J. and William G. Buxton, aged 7, 5 and 3 years, of whom the wife asks custody. Mrs. Buxton charges in her petition that her husband abandoned her on July 13, last, since which time she has been compelled to depend upon charity and her own exertions for the support of herself and children. On the date named Buxton is alleged to have left East Liverpool with Maude Hughes, a girl of questionable character, with whom he had been intimate from April 15, 1902, to the time of their departure from East Liverpool. The plaintiff says she believes her husband and the co-respondent are now unlawfully living together.

The defendant's property consists of lot 2661 in Simms' addition, valued at $2,600. George Kaufman, the party defendant, from whom the lot was purchased, is said to still hold the title with $900 still due him.

EXPLOSION OF DYNAMITE FRIGHTENS MANY PEOPLE

One Man Was Seriously Hurt and Two Persons Had a Very Narrow Escape.

THE RESULT OF BLASTING OPERATIONS

One man was seriously hurt, two people narrowly escaped death, a score were badly frightened and property to the value of several hundred dollars was damaged as the result of a terrific explosion of dynamite on the rocky ledge perhaps 50 feet east of Sophia street this morning shortly after 9 o'clock.

A gang of men who have been blasting rock in that vicinity for some time are responsible for the occurrence. They had just finished a blast directly at the rear of the home of W. A. Vaughn without any disastrous results, and thinking nothing of the possibility of danger filled a hole a short distance away with the explosive. The conditions at this point must have been different for the workmen contend that the amount of dynamite inserted was no more than in the first blast. However, when it was fired there was an awful report, followed instantaneously by a terrible upheaving of dirt, sand stone and rocks. The heaviest of the latter did the most damage.

It weighed several hundred pounds and was sent with great force at the Vaughn home. Striking the house on the north side, it tore out a huge hole, smashing everything within its wake. Charles Struthers, father-in-law of Vaughn, was struck by a piece of flying timber, and knocked across the room against the opposite wall with sufficient force to render him almost unconscious. His right leg was badly bruised and he was hurt internally. Mr. Vaughn and his wife were each thrown backward to the floor and were narrowly missed by the rock. The breakfast table, which was directly in the path of the rock, together with a large number of dishes, was completely demolished.

Pandemonium reigned in the vicinity for quite a while. There are numerous families living close to the Vaughn home and all were terrorized by the explosion and its consequences. Every house in the neighborhood was shaken perceptibly and there were few that escaped a shower of rocks and other missiles. Besides tearing the hole in the Vaughn home hundreds of rocks fell on top of the house, breaking the slate in numerous places. The house was also thrown out of plumb and the plastering all over it was damaged.

After the excitement had abated somewhat the men working in the quarry, who all had narrow escapes, went to the Vaughn home and assisted in quieting the members of the household. Accomplishing this they at once summoned some carpenters and work was soon commenced to repair the damage.

Potters' Association Meeting at Washington Winds Up With a Feast of Oratory.

Washington, December 3.—The annual convention of the United States Potters' association closed last night with a banquet at which prominent guests were present. The dinner at the Hotel Raleigh was a delightful affair. United States Senator Moses E. Clapp, of Minnesota, spoke ably and paid a high tribute to the American pottery manufacturers. Gen. Charles H. Grosvenor made an address which elicited heartiest applause.

Ex-Congressman R. W. Taylor spoke briefly of the triumphs of American enterprise and American genius. He dwelt on the importance of maintaining present tariff rates. Hon. S. H. Payne, of New York, and Senator N. B. Scott, of West Virginia, also spoke briefly but ably. Other speakers were Hon. S. B. Armstrong, assistant secretary of the treasury; Hon. J. A. Hemenway, of Indiana; Hon. J. H. Gaines, and Hon. James Kennedy, of the Eighteenth Ohio district. The meeting was an important one and the banquet one of the most enjoyable ever held by the association.

Lisbon, December 3.—(Special).—The damage case of John Brighthouse versus Frank P. Saulsberry, an East Liverpool policeman, which was assigned for another trial yesterday, was continued on motion of Solicitor G. E. Davidson, attorney for the defendant. A continuance was asked for on the ground that John Brighthouse, Jr., an essential witness for the plaintiff, did not put in an appearance, although a subpoena had been left at his home. He is said to have disappeared from East Liverpool about the time of the former trial.

The plaintiff asks $500 for a sprained and broken wrist said to have been inflicted unnecessarily by the defendant officer while he was searching Brighthouse after he had been arrested. A jury some months ago returned a verdict for the defendant, which was set aside later.

It is understood the plaintiff is working on some new evidence, and can institute new proceedings after the lapse of one year.

Senator C. C. Connell appeared for the plaintiff, and Judges J. G. Moore and W. G. Wells appeared for the defendant.

WEAVER AND WYMAN SCORE A GREAT VICTORY

POSITION OF SOLICITOR NOT UPHOLD BY COURT

Judge Hole Decides the Wyman Controversy Adversely to Attorney Davidson.

THE ACTION WAS BROUGHT PREMATURELY

Lisbon, December 3.—(Special.)—In an opinion given in common pleas court here this morning, Judge W. W. Hole decided the East Liverpool chief of police controversy in favor of the defendants, Mayor W. A. Weaver and the board of public safety, against whom suit was brought by Solicitor George E. Davidson, to prevent the appointment of John W. Wyman as chief of police. A restraining order was asked on the ground that under the new code Wyman was not a member of the classified service, and therefore ineligible. The case has attracted wide attention throughout the state.

Solicitor Davidson was present when the decision was given and at once served notice of appeal to the circuit court.

After recapitulating the allegations in the petition and the answer of the defendants, Judge Hole gave his decision, the full text of which follows:

"Counsel on both sides took some time during the arguments of the case to explain to the court the state of public and party feeling existing at East Liverpool over the questions involved in this case, but from the apologetic manner in which both counsel referred to this state of feeling I scarcely think that counsel on either side expected the court to pay any attention to this matter, but only to consider the legal and equitable questions raised by the pleadings in this case, and this I shall endeavor to do.

It devolves, therefore, upon the plaintiff to produce evidence by which it may clearly appear:

"First—That the said John Wyman is ineligible to appointment to the office of chief of police of the city of East Liverpool; and

"So far as this action is directed against the members of the board of public safety, who have no power to appoint any one to office, the remedy sought is to enjoin them from certifying the name of John W. Wyman for the mayor for appointment.

"The claim made by plaintiff is that said John W. Wyman is ineligible to hold said office for the following reasons:

"First—That there were personal solicitations made in his behalf to the appointing power, which solicitations disqualified him from competing at any examination for appointments for and during the term of one year thereafter.

WYMAN IS NOT ON CLASSIFIED LIST.

"Second—That the said John W. Wyman is ineligible to take and hold said office, for the reason that under the law the chief of police must be appointed from the classified list of the police department, and the said Wyman is not upon said list.

"Third—That the said John W. Wyman is ineligible because the law requires that in all cases where it is practicable that vacancies in an office shall be filled by promotion, and that it is practicable in this case to fill the office of chief of police by promotion of one of the patrolmen.

"Fourth—It is further claimed that the said John W. Wyman cannot be appointed chief of police for the reason that under the law no person serving in the police or fire department at the time the municipal code went into effect can be removed or reduced in rank or pay, and that inasmuch as the city council has so organized the department as to provide for only seven patrolmen and one night watchman, that some one of the eight patrolmen holding office at the time said act went into effect, must either be promoted to the office of chief of police, or some one of said patrolmen must be reduced to the rank of night policeman or station house keeper, and that thereby the law would be violated.

NO EVIDENCE OF ANY SOLICITATION.

"So far as the first claim is concerned; that is, that personal solicitations were made in behalf of John Wyman, the court intimated at the time of the hearing that there was not evidence sufficient to substantiate this claim, and upon a careful review of the matter, I have found no reason to change my opinion.

"Practically the only testimony upon that subject was the testimony of Charles Gill, who stated that the mayor on the day that Wyman was appointed as temporary chief of police, said to him in explaining why Gill had not been appointed, that there had been great pressure brought to bear upon him. It did not clearly appear from the testimony whether the pressure was against the appointment of Gill, or in favor of the appointment of Wyman, or both. There was no evidence to show that this pressure was—whether it consisted of solicitations in behalf of Mr. Wyman or some other kind of pressure—and in a case of this kind the court cannot infer that unlawful solicitations were made, but the fact must be clearly shown by the party making such claims. Furthermore, it does not appear that these solicitations, if made, were for anything more than the appointment of some one as temporary chief of police, and not as a permanent incumbent of that office.

WHAT IS MEANT BY CLASSIFIED LIST.

"Coming now to the second claim, that is, that Wyman is ineligible because he is not upon the classified list of the police department, it appears that counsel are at variance as to what is meant by the words, 'classified list,' as used in the last clause of section 149 of the code, which reads, 'The chief of police shall be appointed from the classified list of said department.'

"Counsel for plaintiff insists that the classified list from which the appointment must be made is the list referred to in section 158 of the municipal code, which reads as follows:

"The board of public safety shall within 30 days after the organization of such board, classify all offices and places of appointment and employment in each city in the department of public safety, with reference to the examinations hereinafter provided for. The offices, employment and places so classified by the said board of public safety shall constitute the classified service of the department of said city and no appointments to such places shall be made except under and according to the rules hereinafter mentioned.

REASONABLE GROUNDS FOR DISAGREEMENT.

"Immediately upon the classification of such department, such board shall furnish to the mayor a list of all offices, employment and places in any way connected with such department within said classified service, with the names of the incumbents, their compensation and the nature of the duties; and said board shall from time to time promptly furnish to the said mayor in writing at his request all other information desired by him for the proper fulfillment of his duties."

"On the other hand, counsel for defendants claim that the list referred to in section 149 is the list contained on the register referred to in section 164 of the code, which reads as follows:

"From the results of the examinations made by said board, said board shall prepare a register for each grade or class of positions in the classified service of such city, of the names of persons whose general average standing upon such examinations for such grade is not less than the minimum fixed by the rules of said board and where otherwise eligible; and such persons shall take rank upon the register as candidates, in order of their relative examinations, as determined by examinations, without reference to priority of the time of examination."

NO REASON FOR NOT CERTIFYING WYMAN.

"While there are reasonable grounds for this disagreement between counsel, and while section 158 standing alone would seem to warrant the contention of plaintiff's counsel, it is the duty of the court to reconcile, if possible, these various sections, and this I have endeavored to do. If we are to accept the contention of plaintiff, and say that the classified list is the list which the board of public safety furnishes to the mayor, of all offices, employment and places in any way connected with such department, within said classified service, with the names of the incumbents, their compensation, etc., then it may very well be urged that the said John W. AUDITORS WILL MEET AT STATE CAPITAL

A Conference Next Week Which Will Help City Officials Who Take Part.

City Auditor Davidson received a letter yesterday from State Auditor Guilbert, of Columbus, stating that there will be a meeting of the auditors of every city in the state at Columbus on Wednesday and Thursday, December 9 and 10. The letter was the same as has been sent to all sections of the state and the recipients of them are all expected to be present at the meeting.

The object of the meeting will be to give to the auditors the proper method of conducting their work. While a number of cities, East Liverpool included, have already adopted the system accepted at the state auditor's office, the large majority of them have run the business as of old and are entirely ignorant of the proper manner. The meeting will be for the purpose of giving such instructions as are necessary, and it is thought that within a few months after the new law takes effect, so far as the auditors are concerned along this kind of work, the system will be in perfect order all over the state and there will be no trouble in the future in keeping the cities' finances comprehensible.

Auditor Davidson will attend the meeting and expects to meet brother officials from every part of the state. He will take particular pains to learn the exact manner by which all appropriations are made and he will discover the shortcomings of council and himself relative to handling the city's money.

DIVORCE IS REFUSED MRS. W. K. BUXTON

Plaintiff's Allegations of Unfaithfulness Not Proved to the Court's Satisfaction.

Lisbon, December 3.—(Special.)—In the divorce and alimony case of Jennie Buxton, of East Liverpool, versus W. K. Buxton and George Kaufman, the last named a party defendant, divorce was refused in court here yesterday afternoon, Judge Hole holding the evidence was not sufficient to substantiate the charge of unfaithfulness set forth in the petition as the main ground on which divorce was asked. Alimony to the amount of all the defendant's property was awarded to the plaintiff and the case was continued as to the divorce feature.

The parties to the suit were married in East Liverpool September 17, 1888, and have three children, Bernice C. Iris J. and William G. Buxton, aged 7, 5 and 3 years, of whom the wife asks custody. Mrs. Buxton charges in her petition that her husband abandoned her on July 13, last, since which time she has been compelled to depend upon charity and her own exertions for the support of herself and children. On the date named Buxton is alleged to have left East Liverpool with Maude Hughes, a girl of questionable character, with whom he had been intimate from April 15, 1902, to the time of their departure from East Liverpool. The plaintiff says she believes her husband and the co-respondent are now unlawfully living together.

The defendant's property consists of lot 2661 in Simms' addition, valued at $2,600. George Kaufman, the party defendant, from whom the lot was purchased, is said to still hold the title with $900 still due him.

EXPLOSION OF DYNAMITE FRIGHTENS MANY PEOPLE

One Man Was Seriously Hurt and Two Persons Had a Very Narrow Escape.

THE RESULT OF BLASTING OPERATIONS

One man was seriously hurt, two people narrowly escaped death, a score were badly frightened and property to the value of several hundred dollars was damaged as the result of a terrific explosion of dynamite on the rocky ledge perhaps 50 feet east of Sophia street this morning shortly after 9 o'clock.

A gang of men who have been blasting rock in that vicinity for some time are responsible for the occurrence. They had just finished a blast directly at the rear of the home of W. A. Vaughn without any disastrous results, and thinking nothing of the possibility of danger filled a hole a short distance away with the explosive. The conditions at this point must have been different for the workmen contented that the amount of dynamite inserted was no more than in the first blast. However, when it was fired there was an awful report, followed instantaneously by a terrible upheaving of dirt, sand stone and rocks. The heaviest of the latter did the most damage.

It weighed several hundred pounds and was sent with great force at the Vaughn home. Striking the house on the north side, it tore out a huge hole, smashing everything within its wake. Charles Struthers, father-in-law of Vaughn, was struck by a piece of flying timber, and knocked across the room against the opposite wall with sufficient force to render him almost unconscious. His right leg was badly bruised and he was hurt internally. Mr. Vaughn and his wife were each thrown backward to the floor and were narrowly missed by the rock. The breakfast table, which was directly in the path of the rock, together with a large number of dishes, was completely demolished.

Pandemonium reigned in the vicinity for quite a while. There are numerous families living close to the Vaughn home and all were terrorized by the explosion and its consequences. Every house in the neighborhood was shaken perceptibly and there were few that escaped a shower of rocks and other missiles. Besides tearing the hole in the Vaughn home hundreds of rocks fell on top of the house, breaking the slate in numerous places. The house was also thrown out of plumb and the plastering all over it was damaged.

After the excitement had abated somewhat the men working in the quarry, who all had narrow escapes, went to the Vaughn home and assisted in quieting the members of the household. Accomplishing this they at once summoned some carpenters and work was soon commenced to repair the damage.

A GRAND BANQUET HELD AT THE CLOSE

Potters' Association Meeting at Washington Winds Up With a Feast of Oratory.

Washington, December 3.—The annual convention of the United States Potters' association closed last night with a banquet at which prominent guests were present. The dinner at the Hotel Raleigh was a delightful affair. United States Senator Moses E. Clapp, of Minnesota, spoke ably and paid a high tribute to the American pottery manufacturers. Gen. Charles H. Grosvenor made an address which elicited heartiest applause.

Ex-Congressman R. W. Taylor spoke briefly of the triumphs of American enterprise and American genius. He dwelt on the importance of maintaining present tariff rates. Hon. S. H. Payne, of New York, and Senator N. B. Scott, of West Virginia, also spoke briefly but ably. Other speakers were Hon. S. B. Armstrong, assistant secretary of the treasury; Hon. J. A. Hemenway, of Indiana; Hon. J. H. Gaines, and Hon. James Kennedy, of the Eighteenth Ohio district. The meeting was an important one and the banquet one of the most enjoyable ever held by the association.

DRUNKEN MINERS

Engage in a Row at Washingtonville And Murder May Result.

Washingtonville, December 3.—A pay day drunk among the Slav miners employed by the Cherry Valley company may result in murder. John Jimlike, aged 23, was shot and stabbed, probably fatally.

Three Slavs have been arrested.

Cited to Appear.

Lisbon, December 3.—(Special.)—Proceedings in aid of execution have been instituted in probate court against Frank S. Falkenbey, of Salem, by K. S. Coburn, as attorney for A. L. Mather, a furniture dealer of that city. The defendant has been cited to appear in court tomorrow at 1 o'clock and answer under oath concerning his property. He is in the meantime enjoined from disposing of any of his money, property or credits.

BRICHOUSE CASE WAS CONTINUED

An Essential Witness Failed to Appear and Is Said to Have Disappeared.

Lisbon, December 3.—(Special.)—The damage case of John Brighthouse versus Frank P. Saulsberry, an East Liverpool policeman, which was assigned for another trial yesterday, was continued on motion of Solicitor G. E. Davidson, attorney for the defendant. A continuance was asked for on the ground that John Brighthouse, Jr., an essential witness for the plaintiff, did not put in an appearance, although a subpoena had been left at his home. He is said to have disappeared from East Liverpool about the time of the former trial.

The plaintiff asks $500 for a sprained and broken wrist said to have been inflicted unnecessarily by the defendant officer while he was searching Brighthouse after he had been arrested. A jury some months ago returned a verdict for the defendant, which was set aside later.

THE WHITECAP CASE

Damage Suit Not Tried on Account of the Non-Appearance of the Plaintiff.

Lisbon, December 3.—(Special.)—The celebrated $10,000 damage case of Howard Kelly against John H. McPherson, in which he charges that he had been falsely accused of complicity in white cap outrages near Inverness, was assigned for another trial yesterday, but was dismissed in default of the appearance of the plaintiff. It is understood the plaintiff is working on some new evidence, and can institute new proceedings after the lapse of one year.

Senator C. C. Connell appeared for the plaintiff, and Judges J. G. Moore and W. G. Wells appeared for the defendant.

LOUWELSA WARE.

C. H. Taylor is presenting a fine showing of glassware, but the Louwelsa pottery seemed, last week, to be in especial favor with visiting buyers, says the New York correspondent of China, Glass and Lamps. The deep rich brown and orange tones are remarkably well blended, and a variety of designs upon the numerous articles are carried out with artistic skill. Not less attractive is the Rubina ware, which is wrought into pedestals and jardinières, displaying all the color harmonies of the Louwelsa, and depending upon the richness of the tones and the graceful lines of the articles for the chief charm. A line of vases, carried out in light blends, with mat finish, is novel and striking in appearance. The colors are indescribably delicate and floral or L'art nouveau motifs, serve to enhance the beauty in gradations of self tone. These products are termed Perfecto ware, and the attention of dealers may well be directed to the group shown in different shapes, all of which present graceful outlines.

braska recently. Archaeologists describe this as being the most ancient evidence of Indian occupation on the plains of the United States—possibly the oldest race of human beings on this globe. A short time after this find workmen, in digging a well near Florence, Arizona, after reaching a depth of 220 feet, came upon a dry, black clay of the kind that browns as "adobe." There was also struck a slightly harder formation upon which were found human bones, charcoal and pottery. The last was found in large quantities, but most of it was broken. Two well-shaped cups, much like our present tea cups, and two saucers, were found intact. They were of a coal black color, thin and well glazed and seem to be of Chinese or Japanese origin.

HOME DECORATIONS.

It matters little whether the subject is glassware for the table or decorative pottery for ornamental use, the trade has to follow the prevalent styles in home decoration. For instance, 20 years ago there was a rage for everything in Louis XIV. and XV. and the bric-a-brac or pottery in demand was naturally of the dainty and classic French type. Everything, even down to the commonest crockery, fits into a style according to the environments. The kitchen stuff never gets into the parlor and the parlor bric-a-brac is quite different from that for table service. To furnish a room on the French style requires an expenditure of considerable money, especially if pottery is used.

WARE FOR THE EXPOSITION.

The Trenton Potteries company is being congratulated upon the success of its display for the Louisiana Purchase exposition in coming satisfactorily out of the kilns. The pieces are very large, and that fact emphasizes the skill required in getting them all right out of the kilns. The pieces are now in the hands of John W. Wigley, the art director of the Trenton Potteries company and a corps of expert decorators. The colorings and designs upon the exhibit ware will include some rare colorings and combinations, and no doubt will be something elaborate.

START DELAYED.

From present indications the big plant of the Bell Pottery company at Columbus, which has been building for more than a year, will not be ready for operation until some time after the first of the new year, says an exchange. Difficulty in securing building materials and the settlement of the estate of William Bell, who was president of the concern at the time of his death, which occurred a year ago, are largely responsible for the delay.

Al Hughes, manager of the plant, has been in this city for several days.

THE OLDEST POTTER.

Henry Bennett, of Baltimore, the oldest living potter in harness, was a conspicuous figure at the Washington convention.

Reports of committee on statistics, the most important one submitted, showed that the output of American ware is holding its own. Last year it was close to fifteen million dollars. There are about seventy general ware potteries in the country.

MILL MEN AGREE TO REDUCED WAGES

Prefer a Decrease and Steady Work to Higher Pay and Uncertain Time.

THE REASON OF THE CUT

New Scale Went into Effect at Cleveland—Situation in Iron and Steel Trade Said to Have Been Explained to the Men.

Cleveland, December 3.—The wages of the men engaged in making steel and iron in this territory are being reduced, and it is understood that this is done with the consent of the men themselves.

The operators of the blast furnaces and of steel mills have told their employees that unless they can cut prices, and at the same time reduce the cost of production slightly, the mills must stop producing, and the whole force be thrown out of employment. The men have, therefore, consented to work for less money than they have been getting.

It is said that the test cases as far as Cleveland is concerned, was made at the mills of the American Steel and Wire company. The men were first sounded as to whether they would accept a reduction in wages. Just before this was done the United States Steel corporation had made its announcement that the salaries of officers would be cut heavily, running from 15 to 35 per cent. That announcement was followed by the agreement of the blast furnace owners of the valleys to curtail production 25 per cent during the fourth quarter of the year. That in turn was followed by the necessity of the steel mills to make reductions in the amount of finished material turned out, and occasionally a mill would shut down with other mills running on "short turns." The steel makers at Newburg had been following the developments in the steel trade, and when the proposal was made to them that they consent to a slight reduction in wages, they consented to the arrangement. In accordance a cut in wages went into effect there yesterday. The decision of the Newburg mills having been so satisfactory, the same proposal was made to the workmen at the HP Nail Works and they consented to the arrangement also. The cut went into effect yesterday at that mill, too.

The officers of the steel mills have gone about making the reduction in a way which is said to be satisfactory to all concerned. The wages of the men who get small pay have been cut the least, while those who are getting the higher wages have been cut the more heavily. It is said that the average reduction aimed at is 10 per cent. The cuts have been so unevenly distributed, however, that it is hard to give anything concrete on the matter. It is known that the mills in Cleveland have shown that they are able to produce steel economically. Their success in that way has led the steel corporation officials to include them among the number of mills to be retained in service when a curtailment of production is necessary. The action of the workmen at the Newburg and the other mills of the steel corporation here has further clinched the proposition, and it is now understood in steel circles that Cleveland mills will be kept in service when others have been put out of business.

The Cleveland blast furnaces have not yet reached the point where reductions in wages are being made. But it is common rumor in steel circles that individual owners of blast furnaces in the valleys have been able to come to understandings with their employees which will permit a reduction in wages. The valley situation has not been good for the ironmakers of late. The price of Northern ore has been high. In addition the cost of labor has been higher than it has been in the South, where the furnaces compete with those in this territory. The coke prices have also been high. It has been estimated that it has cost nearly $14 a ton to produce pig iron in the valley.

The Southern furnaces have been selling the same grade of iron delivered in Cleveland at $13.75. The valley furnaces, therefore, either had to cut wages or close furnaces. Now 60 per cent of the stacks in the valleys are shut down temporarily for lack of business. The men were told of the situation, and advised to accept lower wages, and business could be done again. The men wanted work, and in many instances have accepted lower wages. The whole situation, therefore, it is claimed, has been cleared up, and the steel producers believe that better times are ahead.

In the valleys it was not a movement where the associated furnaces dealt with the united workmen, but rather the individual furnace owners went to

CLASS BANQUET AND RECEPTION

REV. DR. PRATT'S PUPILS TO ENTERTAIN.

Elaborate Affair Planned for Next Tuesday Night at Y. M. C. A. Parlors.

The Sunday school class at the First Methodist church, taught by the pastor, Rev. Dr. Pratt, has issued invitations for a reception and banquet to be given next Tuesday night at the Y. M. C. A. parlors. More than 200 have been asked. The class is composed of about 60 well known young men and has accomplished much in the study of the bible. It is the hope of the teacher and the members of the class to attract many more young men to the Sunday school.

The reception is to commence at 7:30 in the evening. The reception committee is composed of the following officers and members of the class:

W. E. Warren, president; Arthur Shone, secretary; W. S. Cunningham, treasurer; Charles Swan, librarian; George Rankin, Harry Weaver and M. E. Eppley. The committee on decorations and the banquet is Prof. W. R. Phillips, Prof. H. H. Neptune and R. W. Haines. The committee on invitation and finance is Floyd Alles, John Graham and Bruce Brick.

The affair will be of rather a formal nature and quite an elaborate program has been prepared. It is:

Instrumental duet—Mr. and Mrs. Harry Weaver.
"The Man Without a Party"—W. A. Weaver.

"One Among Many"—Miss Florence Updegraff.

"Education"—Prof. W. R. Phillips.

"Consolation"—M. E. Eppley.

"All Roads Lead to Rome"—Prof. H. H. Neptune.

"Indebtedness and Acknowledgment"—R. W. Haines.

"The Bible Class"—Will McNutt.

"The Religion Star Gazer"—Rev. Dr. Pratt.

The banquet will be served by the Women's Foreign Missionary society of the church.

CLASS BANQUET AND RECEPTION

REV. DR. PRATT'S PUPILS TO ENTERTAIN.

Elaborate Affair Planned for Next Tuesday Night at Y. M. C. A. Parlors.

The Sunday school class at the First Methodist church, taught by the pastor, Rev. Dr. Pratt, has issued invitations for a reception and banquet to be given next Tuesday night at the Y. M. C. A. parlors. More than 200 have been asked. The class is composed of about 60 well known young men and has accomplished much in the study of the bible. It is the hope of the teacher and the members of the class to attract many more young men to the Sunday school.

The reception is to commence at 7:30 in the evening. The reception committee is composed of the following officers and members of the class:

W. E. Warren, president; Arthur Shone, secretary; W. S. Cunningham, treasurer; Charles Swan, librarian; George Rankin, Harry Weaver and M. E. Eppler. The committee on decorations and the banquet is Prof. W. R. Phillips, Prof. H. H. Neptune and R. W. Haines. The committee on invitation and finance is Floyd Alles, John Graham and Bruce Brick.

The affair will be of rather a formal nature and quite an elaborate program has been prepared. It is:

Instrumental duet—Mr. and Mrs. Harry Weaver.

"The Man Without a Party"—W. A. Weaver.

"One Among Many"—Miss Florence Updegraff.

"Education"—Prof. W. R. Phillips.

"Consolation"—M. E. Eppler.

"Undervaluations"—Will N. Bloor.

"Idealism"—Harry J. Clark.

"All Roads Lead to Rome"—Prof. H. H. Neptune.

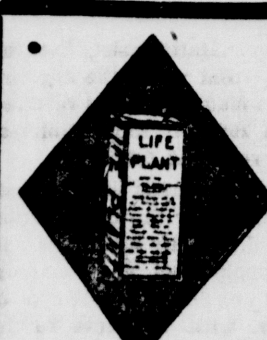

"Indebtedness and Acknowledgment"—R. W. Haines.

"The Bible Class"—Will McNutt.

"The Religion Star Gazer"—Rev. Dr. Pratt.

The banquet will be served by the Women's Foreign Missionary society of the church.

George Donaldson, for 18 years an employe of the Bellaire steel works, was struck by an engine and killed.

LIFE PLANT

THE greatest of all known remedies for the positive cure of all diseases of the STOMACH, LIVER, KIDNEYS and BLOOD. It is nature's own remedy and acts in accordance with her laws. Do you suffer with INDIGESTION—are you distressed after eating—does a torpid liver make you feel miserable—out of sorts—at variance with the world? Do the kidneys fail to perform their duty, giving backache and general lassitude? Are you all worn out? LIFE PLANT will relieve quickly and cure permanently—no disappointment—no failure—it has cured thousands of others—it will cure you.

Rev. J. H. Morehead, Pastor M. E. church of Peapack, N. J., writes under date July 10, 1900: "I feel pleasure, and do not hesitate to recommend Life Plant as an excellent remedy for Liver and Kidney difficulties. Mrs. Morehead desires to bear testimony to the healing virtues of Life Plant, as a cure and certain remedy for Rheumatism."

EAST END GREAT CATCH OF FISH IN LITTLE BEAVER

Boys Who Went Skating Returned With Fine Specimens of the Finny Tribe.

A number of East End young men, among whom were Carl Angle, Blaine Bulger and Will Terrence, had unexpected luck at fishing yesterday along Little Beaver creek, although they did not start out to angle for the finny tribe. The boys left early in the morning to skate and had enjoyed the sport for several hours when they came across a shallow stretch of water, removed from the main channel, that was not entirely frozen over. By skating over the ice a number of fish were driven out into the open water by fear and it was not long until the boys were aware that the place was fairly alive with them.

Removing their skates the boys stepped into the water, which scarcely covered their ankles and were soon capturing fish faster than they ever had before. Carp, catfish and perch, weighing from one to five pounds, were taken out until the entire catch aggregated at least 30 pounds.

As there was no way for the fish to regain the main channel and the supply not being exhausted, a number of the boys returned to the spot this morning to continue the catch.

AUTOMOBILE LINE

THE MONEY KINGS HARD TO REACH

Russell Sage Is Accessible But Morgan and Rockefeller Are Not.

A BALLOON AND TELEPATHY

The Only Known Way of Getting in Touch With the Standard Oil Magnate—Some Characteristics of Noted Millionaires.

New York, December 3.—"Russell Sage is as easy to reach as any of the big men of New York," said a newspaper man whose work has been in the financial district for a third of a century. "I used to wonder why it was so, and whether Uncle Russell was more democratic than the other fellows. But I have finally settled upon the reason. It is not fraternity and equality, but business. Sage has money to lend, and any one who comes may be a possible borrower. So the old man sees him."

"How about Morgan?"

"There are no bolts and bars about him," said the newspaper man. "For years only a glass partition has shut him off from the view of those who get so far as the main reception office. It looks as though any stranger could walk in, tap him on the shoulder, and ask him what steel common is really worth, but the caller who tries it, runs up against a big polite man who looks into his game. Seven-tenths are shunted off on partners or department heads. Two-tenths are slid gently into the street, and the other man, who has business with Morgan, sees Morgan. His interview generally consists of statements on his part, and 'yes' or 'no' on the part of John Pierpont."

"The firm leases a small room in a building next to it, to which the members retire for consultation among themselves or with special callers; and when they are in there, not even the head messenger dare take in a card. When they want him, they ring for him."

"How about the Rockefellers?"

"There are only two ways of reaching John D. Rockefeller, that I know of," was the answer. "One way is by a balloon from which you can crawl into his window, and the other is by mental telegraphy. Even the telephone won't work, and the mail is useless."

"He never goes to the Standard building any more. All his personal business is in the hands of special managers. It is not an easy matter to reach them, but that is as close as one ever gets. His brother William may be found at the Standard block—no, I do not mean that. He goes to his office down there, but not to be found. A secretary soon appears with the card that the caller has sent in, and in 99 times out of 100 remarks that Mr. Rockefeller cannot be seen. If the business is something in which Mr. Rockefeller has an interest, the caller is taken to some man in the building who forthwith attends to it, or turns it down."

"How about the other fellows?"

"They are pretty much alike," responded the financial journalist. "At George Gould's office a card is taken in easily enough, but the answer is always the same, 'Mr. Gould is out, and we do not know when he will return.' William K. Vanderbilt is hard to get at. He can pass from his office through a dozen or so of others, and never set foot in a hall. He is always 'out' and a newspaper man who would attempt to interview him, would have to station a 'pal' at each one of 15 or 20 doors. By the way, I don't remember to have ever seen an interview with him."

"Charles M. Schwab was difficult of access when at the head of the United States Steel corporation; not because of the big head, but he had no time for his own work, let alone that of the public. Senator Platt is easy of access, but not easy to pump. Senator Depew is also easy of access, and not hard to interview, but he does not talk one-tenth as much as he used to."

Found Dead in Bed.

New York, Dec. 3.—Robert B. Gattling, a son of the late Richard B. Gattling, inventor of the gun which bears his name, was found dead in bed in his apartment. A doctor who was called said he had been dead some hours and that in all probability death was due to heart disease. He was about 35 years old and came to New York from Hartford, Conn., four years ago.

"He never goes to the Standard building any more. All his personal business is in the hands of special managers. It is not an easy matter to reach them, but that is as close as one ever gets. His brother William may be found at the Standard block—no, I do not mean that. He goes to his office down there, but not to be found. A secretary soon appears with the card that the caller has sent in, and in 99 times out of 100 remarks that Mr. Rockefeller cannot be seen. If the business is something in which Mr. Rockefeller has an interest, the caller is taken to some man in the building who forthwith attends to it, or turns it down."

"How about the other fellows?" "They are pretty much alike," responded the financial journalist. "At George Gould's office a card is taken in easily enough, but the answer is always the same, 'Mr. Gould is out, and we do not know when he will return.' William K. Vanderbilt is hard to get at. He can pass from his office through a dozen or so of others, and never set foot in a hall. He is always 'out' and a newspaper man who would attempt to interview him, would have to station a 'pal' at each one of 15 or 20 doors. By the way, I don't remember to have ever seen an interview with him."

"Charles M. Schwab was difficult of access when at the head of the United States Steel corporation; not because of the big head, but he had no time for his own work, let alone that of the public. Senator Platt is easy of access, but not easy to pump. Senator Depew is also easy of access, and not hard to interview, but he does not talk one-tenth as much as he used to."

Found Dead in Bed.

New York, Dec. 3.—Robert B. Gattling, a son of the late Richard J. Gattling, inventor of the gun which bears his name, was found dead in bed in his apartment. A doctor who was called said he had been dead some hours and that in all probability death was due to heart disease. He was about 25 years old and came to New York from Hartford, Conn., four years ago.

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 3, 1903.

The question of a purer water supply for Ohio river cities and towns is receiving renewed attention. The calamity that has overtaken Butler, Pa., on account of impure water serves as a public warning, which all cities dependent upon rivers for their water supply should heed. The danger, instead of diminishing, is growing constantly. Population of urban communities is increasing rapidly, and the general disposition is to use the streams, both small and large, for the disposal of sewage. The Ohio river and its tributaries above East Liverpool drain a district populated by more than a million and a half of people. To say that the water is purified in passing the distance of 45 miles from Pittsburgh, receiving en route the sewage from the populous valleys of the Beaver, Shenango and Mahoning, is to fly in the face of common sense and reason. A grave peril menaces this city, which uses this water unfiltered and unpurified, and the same is true of scores of other cities and towns along the Ohio valley. Concerted action should be taken by all the river villages and cities, looking to some method of relief. It is a question of grave moment, and if the necessary steps are delayed, the result is likely to be an epidemic of disease equally if not more terrible than that which has overtaken Butler. Meantime, the advice to treat Ohio river water which has not been boiled or purified, as rank poison, should be posted everywhere and shouted from the housetops.

The Ohio hunting season was short, but it was productive of 36 fatal shootings. There are some who think the hunting season should be extended, but thoughtful people not in the undertaking business will agree that it is quite long enough.

OBITUARY

James Stewart.

James Stewart, well known in this city, died at an early hour this morning at his home in East Palestine, from a complication of troubles, after a serious illness of but a few days. The remains will be brought to this city tomorrow and the funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock p. m. at the United Presbyterian church. Mr. Stewart was superintendent of the East Palestine pottery but before going there about seven years ago lived in this city. He was one of the best men in this section in the mechanical end of a pottery and had made quite a success. He is survived by a wife and two children, Donald and Robert. Several near relatives reside here.

GREAT WORK BY FEEBLE-MINDED

Construct Buildings, Raise Farm Produce and Make Clothes for 1,500 During Year.

Columbus, December 3.—(Special.)—Feeble-minded boys made 1,500,000 bricks, furnished most of the unskilled labor in constructing half a dozen buildings, and raised farm and garden crops enough to feed 1,500 persons. Feeble-minded girls made most of the bedding and clothing worn by that number.

This is the industrial history of the year at the Institution for Feeble-minded Youth, as set forth in the annual report of Superintendent Doren, filed with the governor yesterday. The work of the custodial farm, where there has begun the colonization of all imbeciles in Ohio, with the prospective ultimate elimination of inherited imbecility of both mind and body, is mentioned at length.

There is wanted next year $65,000 for new buildings and $60,000 for repairs and other improvements, as well as $180,000 for current expenses. For caring for 1,239 inmates, 725 boys and 514 girls, the expenses were $160,441.28 the past year. During the year 19 boys and 19 girls died, eight deaths being caused by measles.

Contagion! Contagion!

This is the Alarm that must be Sounded Against Catarrh.

It is Contagious! It is Catching! It is Infectious!

Catarrh is a GERM disease and must be so treated henceforth. BRAZILIAN BALM is the only antidote that destroys the infectious germ and makes a radical cure.

A Home Treatment for $1.00 With Tonic Free

We all know that Small Pox, Typhoid, Diphtheria, Measles, Mumps, Scarlet Fever, Whooping Cough, etc., are "catching." They are "catching" or contagious because they are germ or microbe diseases. This is no theory, it is a proved fact, admitted by all scientific men. Dr. Theodore Potter, the eminent Bacteriologist, says:—"We can see bacteria, can cultivate them, can identify and grow the different varieties. We can plant them in the bodies of men and animals and reproduce at will the diseases from which the bacteria were obtained."

This is equally true of Catarrh. The germin-like breath of the Catarrh victim is laden with these malignant germs; so is the pus. Put a drop of it under a powerful microscope and see the wriggle. They are very minute it is true. It takes 50,000 of them laid side by side to cover an inch on the rule, but there is probably no microbe so long lived, so persistent, so voracious and so hard to kill.

Not Climatic.

The opinion has widely prevailed that Catarrh was caused by climatic conditions. This is found to be a mistake, and has had most disastrous results, having the disease to spread unchecked over wide sections of the country. Possibly some localities are more favorable to its development and violence than others, but there must be the seed before you can get the harvest. Oats must be sown to produce oats, and wheat to produce wheat. The Small Pox microbe must be sown to produce Small Pox, the Mumps microbe to produce Mumps. So the Catarrh microbe must be berated in to produce Catarrh, climate or no climate. The Catarrh germ will produce Catarrh and nothing else will produce it.

Again, Among the Aborigines of this country Catarrh was unknown. That proves it is not "climatic." Another thing. It took 200 years for Catarrh to get a foothold among us. Forty years ago less than 5 per cent. of the adult population were affected. Today there are over 20,000,000 victims, and rapidly multiplying. Has "climate" done this? Could anything do it but contagion?

How has it Spread?

The breath! The fetid, germ-laden breath. Also by contact, as in kissing. Also from expectorations; and washing in the same bowl, using the same towels, napkins, etc., used by those afflicted with this putrid disease. It does not spring from the blood or any condition of the blood. The Catarrh microbe is never found in the "blood." It is not a "blood disease," and cannot be cured by "blood medicines." It is a germ disease and is propagated as above stated. It could not be propagated through the "blood."

A Sanitary Problem.

So rapid have been the ravages of this putrid distemper within the last few years that it must soon come to the front as the most vital sanitary problem. The disease is everywhere, but in many localities it is a veritable pestilence. If every house were quarantined where it exists to stamp out this plague. Every one is vitally interested. Every one who is now free from it must avoid contagion as they would Small Pox or the Cholera. Those who are afflicted with it, even in a mild form, should hasten to get cured, and the other members of the family for their own safety, should insist on instant action. With united action the plague can be stayed and stamped out.

One Sure Cure.

Fortunately an antidote has at last been found for this filthy and infectious disorder. At last, after everything else had failed, and even the doctors had given up in despair, Brazilian Balm was discovered. It kills the microbe instantly; it penetrates between the folds and into the deepest passages of the head, healing the ulcers and running sores. It is the most healing balsam in the world. The moment you begin its use it renders the breath and expectoration immune (non-contagious). It heals the throat, curing Asthma and Bronchitis. It heals the stomach that has been made raw and ulcerated by swallowing the germ-laden Catarrh pus. It quickly takes Colds and Grippe out of the system. It has been in use 15 years and cured tens of thousands, even where the throat was eaten out so you could put your finger into the hole an inch deep. It will cure you.

A Great Offer.

Catarrh victims have run down systems and impaired vitality. It could hardly be otherwise.

They need a good Tonic to help in restoring their lost vigor. A nerve and strength builder. We have the best remedy for this known to science: TOXICOLA TABLETS. We will from this time on, for the next six months, enclose a month's treatment of TOXICOLA TABLETS with every $1.00 bottle of Brazilian Balm. A $1.00 bottle of Brazilian Balm contains a Month's Treatment. See that the name is blown in the bottle. B. F. Jackson & Co., Indianapolis, Ind. The summer is the best time to treat Catarrh as the disease is less violent then than in cold weather.

out on the great plains in the west, to her nine-year-old son, trusting him to care for her new born babe, his little sister. Yet "Young Tobe Hoxie" did it as a duty, even when that young baby grew to be a woman and caused many heart aches by her willfulness in having her own way. This beautiful pastoral play will be at the Grand opera house Tuesday, December 8.

From the moment the curtain rises on "Quincy Adams Sawyer," the great rural drama which is coming here on December 11, 1903, at the Grand opera house, the genuine country atmosphere is established and everybody is directly put into that receptive mood which is a guarantee that the play is a thorough pleasure to theatre-goers.

GREAT WORK BY FEEBLE-MINDED

Construct Buildings, Raise Farm Produce and Make Clothes for 1,500 During Year.

Columbus, December 3.—(Special.)—Feeble-minded boys made 1,500,000 bricks, furnished most of the unskilled labor in constructing half a dozen buildings, and raised farm and garden crops enough to feed 1,500 persons. Feeble-minded girls made most of the bedding and clothing worn by that number.

This is the industrial history of the year at the Institution for Feeble-minded Youth, as set forth in the annual report of Superintendent Doren, filed with the governor yesterday. The work of the custodial farm, where there has begun the colonization of all imbeciles in Ohio, with the prospective ultimate elimination of inherited imbecility of both mind and body, is mentioned at length.

There is wanted next year $65,000 for new buildings and $60,000 for repairs and other improvements, as well as $180,000 for current expenses. For caring for 1,239 inmates, 725 boys and 514 girls, the expenses were $160,441.28 the past year. During the year 19 boys and 19 girls died, eight deaths being caused by measles.

We all know that Small Pox, Typhoid,
Diphtheria, Measles, Mumps, Scarlet
Fever, Whooping Cough, etc., are "catching."
They are "catching" or contagious because they are germ or microbe diseases.
This is no theory, it is a proved fact, admitted by all scientific men. Dr. Theodore Potter, the eminent Bacteriologist, says:—"We can see bacteria, can cultivate them, can identify and grow the different varieties. We can plant them in the bodies of men and animals and reproduce at will the diseases from which the bacteria were obtained."

This is equally true of Catarrh. The erful microscope and see the marvels.

Marquet Coal Company Reported to Have Sold Out—Other Items of Interest.

New Cumberland, December 3.—It is currently reported upon the streets and in the news centers here that the Marquet Coal company has disposed of its large coal plant to the American Sewer Pipe company. If the deal has been made it surely will mean the enlargement of the other works, and no doubt will carry with it the building of another sewer pipe or brick works, as it would be the most practical point to reach the beds of fire clay.

As to testing the lower vein of coal and the recent deal for new mines here, it now looks as if New Cumberland would become quite a coal center. A test well is being put down now to make a thorough test of this lower vein, of which it is supposed to be found at about 160 feet below the surface.

The old Freeman works are now being put into shape again by the American Sewer Pipe company, and by spring the works will again be in full operation. The plant has been out of commission for the past four years.

The Mack Manufacturing company's works are all shut down with an immense stock of brick and sewer pipe in stock on hand. It is said that the company will commence repairs about January 1.

A new stone quarry will be opened in the spring by R. E. Brandon and O. L. Marquet, near the mouth of the deep cut, and be loaded on the cars at the Mack company's switch.

Evangelistic services are being conducted in the M. P. church this week and last week. Rev. Mr. Barnes, of Pittsburgh, is here this week. Rev. Mr. Freeman preached last week. The services are growing in interest. A meeting for men only is billed for Sunday afternoon next.

Interest in the oil business is growing in and around New Cumberland. Quite a number of wells will be drilled by local parties.

YOUR MONEY RETURNED

If Hyomei Does Not Cure You of Catarrh, They Will Refund.

In advertising that they will refund the money to any one purchasing a Hyomei outfit who can say that it has done them no good in the treatment of catarrh, Will Reed means exactly what the guarantee says:

Of course the percentage of cures by Hyomei is nearly one hundred or else he could not afford to make this unusual offer. But if the treatment should not be adapted to your case there will be no questions or quibblings when you go to get your money.

That the beginning of catarrh is due to the presence of germs in the air passages is now admitted by every physician. It stands to reason that catarrh cannot be cured unless the germs are first destroyed. The Hyomei treatment kills the catarrh germs even in the minutest air cells, soothes and heals the irritated mucous membrane and makes complete and lasting cures in cases that have resisted the usual methods of treatment.

Catarrh cannot be cured by medicines administered through the stomach. Hyomei is the only natural method and it has made cures that seem miraculous. The outfit costs but $1 and consists of an inhaler which will last a lifetime and sufficient Hyomei for several weeks' treatment. Additional bottles of Hyomei can be procured for 50c.

Will Reed gives his personal guarantee with every Hyomei outfit he sells to refund the money if it does not cure. There is no risk whatever to the purchaser of Hyomei.

COMMITTEE WORKING

Indications Are Favorable for a Satisfactory Adjustment of Troubles.

The committee representing the six trades interested in the proposed reduction of wages in the hot mills of the Chester tin plate mill has been working quietly upon the duties assigned it, and the indications are the result of their labors will be satisfactory to both the men and the company.

There has been no disposition on the part of any of the employees of the plant to reject the proposition for a reduction, and to the present the desire seems to have been uppermost to bring about a settlement of the question on an equal basis. It is thought the committee will be able to arrange a wage scale which will be much more satisfactory than that heretofore in effect, and when all the details have been arranged the working conditions will have been realized.

A part of the plant has been idle during the week, but in case the wage question can be adjusted it is likely the mill will be run more steadily from now until spring. All of the orders on hand had been completed early in the week, but the local management is said to have made a request that they be allowed to work up a quantity of material which was then on hand, and in that way provide employment for the hands until tomorrow evening at least. The workmen have, therefore, been permitted to continue several days longer than would otherwise have been the case.

CHESTER NOTES.

Mr. and Mrs. Park Rose are at Hammondsville visiting friends.

Justice Pugh is able to be out after an illness of several days.

Miss Lydia Murray is the guest of friends at New Cumberland.

Madison Evans went to New Cumberland this morning on a business trip.

Harvey Plankinton and Charles Ewing were hunting yesterday in the vicinity of Hookstown.

George A. Arner is recovering from an illness which had compelled him to remain indoors for several days.

B. I. Hilliard is said to have announced his intention of becoming a candidate for council in the Second ward.

Mrs. Joseph McDonald, who has been ill with consumption for several months, is no better, and it is thought she cannot recover.

Russell Wilkinson, one of the oldest residents of Chester, is very ill at his home in Middle Run. The gentleman is suffering from a complication of diseases, which, coupled with the infirmities of old age, are likely to cause his death.

While in this city Wednesday, ex-Sheriff William Wilkins, of New Cumberland, lost a valuable tax book. The finder will be rewarded by returning it to the owner.

Chapman Riley was severely burned by hot grease yesterday while at work at the tin mill. The grease splashed out of a pot in which it was being heated, and painful burns were inflicted. Riley suffered considerable pain during the day, but is better today.

The case of W. L. Simpson versus S. E. Wisenger was tried in the court of Justice A. G. Pugh yesterday. Judgment was rendered in favor of the plaintiff for $42.90. Household goods belonging to the defendant have been levied upon and will be sold December 12.

Notice of Meeting.

A meeting of all residents of Chester who are interested in the formation of a volunteer fire department will be held at the town hall Saturday evening at 7 o'clock. A full attendance is desired. 283-r

DIED AS RESULT OF SEVERE BURNS

Mrs. Emeline C. Leonard, of Salem, the Victim of Accidental Injuries.

Salem, December 3.—Mrs. Emeline C. Leonard, who was seriously burned at her home on election day, died as a result of the injuries yesterday morning. The explosion occurred while Mrs. Leonard was washing out a paint brush in oil and was standing near enough to the stove to ignite the oil. She was seriously burned and for a time seemed to improve, but her condition changed for the worse about two weeks ago and since then she sank gradually until her spirit took its flight.

She was born in East Liverpool on November 16, 1836, the daughter of B. R. and Rachel Weir, and at the age of seven years removed to Lima, where she resided until she was married to Plympton O. Leonard in 1850. Six children were born to this union and but one daughter, Lula Dewan, of Cleveland, survives. After their marriage they moved to a farm in Goshen township, Mahoning county, where they lived until the death of her husband 32 years ago when she moved to this city.

In 1874 she married Thomas Quinn, to whom one son, George Quinn, of this city, was born.

She was a member of the Methodist church and also a member of the Daughters of Rebekah and a member of the Woman's Relief Corps.

SAFETY BOARD WILL MEET TONIGHT

Member Says Salsberry Should Demand a Trial If He Is Not Guilty.

The regular meeting of the board of public safety will be held this evening. So far as is known there will be nothing of importance before the body. The regular monthly bills will be ordered paid and the routine business will come up. It is not known whether the Salsberry case will be mentioned at the meeting.

One of the members stated this morning that the suspended officer should above all things demand a trial on the charges preferred against him by Chief Wyman, if he believes himself able of proving his innocence. The member further stated that a trial would be simply carrying out the duty of the board, if it is demanded by the officer and that the board will consider the testimony offered with all fairness.

A table of the "Hawaiian Annual" gives a list of plantations, and their present value. There are eight plantations ranging from 1,200 to 18,000 acres each, and at present value of the stock they are worth from $572 to $1,455 per acre.

TOWNSHIP CONSTABLE

Numerous Candidates for the Vacancy, But No One Selected Yet.

The township trustees are yet undecided as to who they will appoint to fill the place of ex-Constable William Copestick, resigned. They have a long list of aspirants under consideration, but are not ready to make a choice.

Like 'Squire Rose they want to choose a man capable and worthy of the position. They will likely decide upon a veteran of the civil war if one can be found who wants it and is also capable.

Residents in the East End, the West End, Calcutta road and Pleasant Heights all have favorites and have solicited the trustees, but no action has been taken.

It was thought for a while that 'Squire Rose must do the appointing, but that was soon found to be without foundation. The trustees will make the decision within a few days.

UNIVERSITY IN ASHES.

Two Probably Fatally Injured—One Missing—Loss $500,000.

Ottawa, Ont., Dec. 3.—The Ottawa university, one of the largest educational institutions in Canada, was totally destroyed by fire. The loss is estimated at $500,000, with insurance of $200,000. All of the students escaped.

Three priests were forced to jump from upper windows and were badly injured. They are: Fathers Boyon, Fullham and McGurty. Father McGurty probably is fatally hurt. One of the domestics is missing and is believed to have perished in the flames and another was so seriously burned that she may die. The missing woman, a Miss Danis, was last seen on the first floor.

The fire, it is believed, was caused by a careless smoker throwing a lighted cigar or cigarette into flammable material.

POSTAL STATISTICS

Annual Report of Fourth Assistant Postmaster General Bristow.

MAKES FEW RECOMMENDATIONS

Wants Rural Carriers' Salaries Increased—Several Thousand Additional Routes to Be Established—Fair Play for Honest Competition.

Washington, Dec. 3.—The annual report of Fourth Assistant Postmaster General Bristow for the fiscal year ended June 30 last makes the following recommendations:

An appropriation to construct inspectors' lookouts in postoffices wherever necessary in the opinion of the postmaster general; that the interstate commerce law be amended so as to prohibit common carriers from aiding and abetting in the green goods, lottery or any other scheme, carried on partly by mail and partly by common carrier, in violation of the postal laws; that special agents and route inspectors be hereafter designated as rural agents; that the provision that rural carriers shall not be prohibited from doing an express package business be repealed; that the maximum of a rural carrier be increased to $750 per annum for a route of 25 miles or more in length, and the enactment of a law requiring assistant postmasters, cashiers and other employees to give bonds to postmasters direct and holding postmasters responsible under their own bonds.

Cost of Free Delivery.

The estimated expenditure for both city and rural free delivery service during the fiscal year beginning July 1 next will aggregate about $47,000,000. There were 15,961 appointments of postmasters during the year and the removals of postmasters for cause showed a decrease. There were 4,462 postoffices discontinued, of which 2,163 resulted from the extension of rural free delivery.

On July 1 last there were 74,169 postoffices, of which 242 were first-class, 1,107 second-class, 3,699 third-class and 69,130 fourth-class. City free delivery service was established during the year at 99 postoffices, making a total of 1,932 free delivery offices.

There are now in operation 19,398 rural free delivery routes. It is estimated that 3,260 additional routes can be established out of the appropriation now available, making 22,678, which will be in operation or ordered established by March 1, 1904. To maintain the service in these routes during the fiscal year from July 1, 1904, to June 30, 1905, will require $13,560,000.

If congress provides for an increased number of agents as recommended, it will require about $19,000,000 to maintain and install the service during the next fiscal year. If the maximum salary of the carriers is increased from $600 to $750 per annum, as recommended, it will necessitate an increase in the above estimates of about 25 per cent.

Private Gain in Public Service.

Mr. Bristow's report further says: "An investigation, which is still in progress, has shown that for a number of years supplies for the free delivery service have not been purchased with an eye single to the public interests. Both in the matter of quality and the cost of equipment the ruling consideration has been private gain. This applies to articles furnished under regular contract, such as street collection boxes and carriers' satchels, as well as to those bought in the open market under exigency privilege, which has been much abused.

"Favored contractors, abetted by a trusted but unfaithful official, have corrupted the public service. An early and thorough reformation will be undertaken along the line of service equipment with the prospective result of improved service at reduced cost. Fraudulent contracts have been abrogated. In the reletting of contracts honest competition will have fair and free play."

RUMORS OF REDUCTION.

Official of Mine Workers Has Heard Nothing of It.

Indianapolis, Dec. 3.—Vice President Thomas Lewis, of the United Mine Workers, said in regard to a Chicago report that a wholesale reduction of miners' wages was contemplated in Illinois, Indiana, Ohio and western Pennsylvania, that he had heard nothing of it.

"When we meet the operators in joint conference," he said, "we expect that the representatives of our organization will be prepared to meet every argument presented by the operators at that time. I am not looking for any trouble and in my opinion the operators will hesitate before they attempt to enforce any drastic measures."

MARRIED BY PROXY.

Beautiful Cuban Arrives in New York to Greet Husband.

New York, Dec. 3.—Mrs. Rafael Lopez, a Cuban of unusual beauty and some wealth, arrived in New York from her native land to greet her husband, to whom she had been married by proxy on Nov. 19 last. Rafael Lopez, the groom, was at that time in this country and she was in Cuba. Lopez met the young woman while on a visit to his father's home in Cuba. She was Anna Rosa Fernandez y Wegener, an orphan.

They became engaged and plans were made for a wedding, which was to have taken place several months ago. Owing to deaths in the family the young girl's wedding had to be postponed and young Lopez was forced to return to the United States. Then it was decided to have the marriage ceremony performed in Cuba, the groom's father acting as his proxy and giving the usual pledges and signing the marriage contract for his son. Young Lopez is a mechanical engineer employed in Paterson, N. J.

"Rain of Blood" Phenomenon.

Rome, Dec. 3.—The phenomenon known as the "rain of blood" was noticed near Salerno during the fearful weather of the past few days, the raindrops being so red as to leave a stain resembling blood. This phenomenon is said to come from Sahara after a severe windstorm, the sand of the desert being carried by the wind across the sea and mixing with the rain as it falls. This form of the phenomenon is somewhat rare, although it reached as far as Rome three years ago.

Recommendations Cost Money.

Omaha, Dec. 3.—The federal grand jury resumed the investigation of alleged conspiracy and bribery in connection with Nebraska postoffice appointments. The cases under consideration are those of Alma and Orleans, in which it is thought to establish before the grand jury that Senator Ditchfield informed all applicants that appointment would be made on the recommendation of Elliot Lowe, a member of the legislature from Harlan county, and that Lowe asked for and received money for his recommendations. The testimony of two bank cashiers of Alma showed that Postmaster Mitchell borrowed $1,000 about the time of his appointment as postmaster of Alma.

Dr. Cyrus Edson Dead.

New York, Dec. 3.—Dr. Cyrus Edson, son of former Mayor Franklin Edson, is dead of pneumonia in the Roosevelt hospital. He was born in Albany in 1857. He was state commissioner of health in 1893 and held various positions in the health board and pharmacy board in New York city. Dr. Edson was the author of many articles on medical and sanitary subjects and was also the inventor of many useful surgical instruments.

Wage Reduction Ordered.
Joliet, Ill., Dec. 3.—A reduction of from 5 to 10 per cent in wages was ordered in all the wire mills of the United States Steel company, affecting 1,000 men.

THIRTY-ONE NOW DEAD

Four More Victims Claimed by Epidemic in Butler—New Cases Multiply.

Butler, Pa., Dec. 3.—Four deaths from typhoid was Wednesday's record, 31 being the total number of deaths from the epidemic to date. Many new cases developed, but the number cannot be estimated, as the health authorities are keeping no record. It is the opinion of those best posted that the epidemic has not reached its height, and it is claimed that the local authorities are taking a too hopeful view of the situation. The deaths were as follows:

Peter McLaughlin, Mercer street, aged 42; leaves a wife and four children.

Mrs. Mary Cooney, Maple avenue, 24 years old; leaves husband and three children.

Walter Russar, a Slav, Red row, aged 5 months.

Mrs. Barbara Zalusk, a Slav, Priest's row; typhoid pneumonia.

Dr. Henderson J. Nelly was taken ill with typhoid fever and two of his children also have it. Dr. McClung, of New York, has arrived and is taking care of Dr. Nelly's patients.

Father Daniel Walsh, of St. Paul's Catholic church, is among those in an extremely critical condition. Some of the new victims reported could not be reached by the doctors in their rounds. In one family the mother, daughter and son-in-law were all ill. Two physicians stated that they thought the worst stage of the epidemic was passed and that from this time on fewer cases would develop. The number of new cases is at least 12 or 14.

Murderer Saved Life of Another.

Columbus, O., Dec. 3.—One condemned murderer saved the life of another at the penitentiary annex. Louis Harmon, sentenced to death for complicity in the murder of George Goyer, an Alton farmer, last summer, tried to hang himself with a rope made of his bed clothing. Michael Schiller, the Youngstown wife murderer, heard the noise made by Harmon and called the guards in time to save the would-be suicide. Prior to his attempt at self-destruction Harmon tried to murder John Fogle, his guard.

Discuss Proposed Wage Reduction.

Cumbeftand, Md., Dec. 3.—Officials of the United Mine Workers met here and discussed the proposed 10-cent reduction of the 3,000 men in the Meyersdale field. The latter are much disturbed, claiming the reduction is a violation of a verbal agreement with the operators that the 65-cent rate should prevail during the scale year. A final meeting will be held at Meyersdale next week. It is feared the reduction will be followed by a strike.

YOUR MONEY RETURNED

If Hyomei Does Not Cure You of Catarrh, Says Will Reed.

In advertising that they will refund the money to any one purchasing a Hyomei outfit who can say that it has done them no good in the treatment of catarrh, Will Reed means exactly what the guarantee says:

Of course the percentage of cures by Hyomei is nearly one hundred or else he could not afford to make this unusual offer. But if the treatment should not be adapted to your case there will be no questions or quibblings when you go to get your money.

That the beginning of catarrh is due to the presence of germs in the air passages is now admitted by every physician. It stands to reason that catarrh cannot be cured unless the germs are first destroyed. The Hyomei treatment kills the catarrh germs even in the minutest air cells, soothes and heals the irritated mucous membrane and makes complete and lasting cures in cases that have resisted the usual methods of treatment.

Catarrh cannot be cured by medicines administered through the stomach. Hyomei is the only natural method and it has made cures that seem miraculous. The outfit costs but $1 and consists of an inhaler which will last a lifetime and sufficient Hyomei for several weeks' treatment. Additional bottles of Hyomei can be procured for 50c.

Will Reed gives his personal guarantee with every Hyomei outfit he sells to refund the money if it does not cure. There is no risk whatever to the purchaser of Hyomei.

COMMITTEE WORKING

Indications Are Favorable for a Satisfactory Adjustment of Troubles.

The committee representing the six trades interested in the proposed reduction of wages in the hot mills of the Chester tin plate mill has been working quietly upon the duties assigned it, and the indications are the result of their labors will be satisfactory to both the men and the company.

There has been no disposition on the part of any of the employees of the plant to reject the proposition for a reduction, and to the present the desire seems to have been uppermost to bring about a settlement of the question on an equal basis. It is thought the committee will be able to arrange a wage scale which will be much more satisfactory than that heretofore in effect, and when all the details have been arranged the working conditions will have been realized.

A part of the plant has been idle during the week, but in case the wage question can be adjusted it is likely the mill will be run more steadily from now until spring. All of the orders on hand had been completed early in the week, but the local management is said to have made a request that they be allowed to work up a quantity of material which was then on hand, and in that way provide employment for the hands until tomorrow evening at least. The workmen have, therefore, been permitted to continue several days longer than would otherwise have been the case.

CHESTER WANTS A GAME.

Manager Richard Banfield, of the Chester high school foot ball team, would like to arrange games with any good 100-pound team in East Liverpool, New Cumberland or Wellsville. Address Richard Banfield, Chester, W. Va.

CHESTER NOTES.

Mr. and Mrs. Park Rose are at Hammondsville visiting friends.

Justice Pugh is able to be out after an illness of several days.

Miss Lydia Murray is the guest of friends at New Cumberland.

Madison Evans went to New Cumberland this morning on a business trip.

Harvey Plankinton and Charles Ewing were hunting yesterday in the vicinity of Hookstown.

George A. Arner is recovering from an illness which had compelled him to remain indoors for several days.

B. I. Hilliard is said to have announced his intention of becoming a candidate for council in the Second ward.

Mrs. Joseph McDonald, who has been ill with consumption for several months, is no better, and it is thought she cannot recover.

Russell Wilkinson, one of the oldest residents of Chester, is very ill at his home in Middle Run. The gentleman is suffering from a complication tion of diseases, which, coupled with the infirmities of old age, are likely to cause his death.

While in this city Wednesday, ex-Sheriff William Wilkins, of New Cumberland, lost a valuable tax book. The finder will be rewarded by returning it to the owner.

Chapman Riley was severely burned by hot grease yesterday while at work at the tin mill. The grease splashed out of a pot in which it was being heated, and painful burns were inflicted. Riley suffered considerable pain during the day, but is better today.

The case of W. L. Simpson versus S. E. Wisenger was tried in the court of Justice A. G. Pugh yesterday. Judgment was rendered in favor of the plaintiff for $42.90. Household goods belonging to the defendant have been levied upon and will be sold December 12.

Notice of Meeting.

A meeting of all residents of Chester who are interested in the formation of a volunteer fire department will be held at the town hall Saturday evening at 7 o'clock. A full attendance is desired. 283-r

Card of Thanks.

We desire to express our sincere thanks to the many kind friends and generous neighbors for their aid during the illness and subsequent death of our relative, Mrs. Sarah Riley. We are especially grateful to Revs. Mr. Blackmore and W. Bruce Gillis, who officiated at the funeral.

DIED AS RESULT OF SEVERE BURNS

Mrs. Emeline C. Leonard, of Salem, the Victim of Accidental Injuries.

Salem, December 3.—Mrs. Emeline C. Leonard, who was seriously burned at her home on election day, died as a result of the injuries yesterday morning. The explosion occurred while Mrs. Leonard was washing out a paint brush in oil and was standing near enough to the stove to ignite the oil. She was seriously burned and for a time seemed to improve, but her condition changed for the worse about two weeks ago and since then she sank gradually until her spirit took its flight.

She was born in East Liverpool on November 16, 1836, the daughter of B. R. and Rachel Weir, and at the age of seven years removed to Lima, where she resided until she was married to Plympton O. Leonard in 1850. Six children were born to this union and but one daughter, Lula Dewan, of Cleveland, survives. After their marriage they moved to a farm in Goshen township, Mahoning county, where they lived until the death of her husband 32 years ago when she moved to this city.

In 1874 she married Thomas Quinn, to whom one son, George Quinn, of this city, was born.

She was a member of the Methodist church and also a member of the Daughters of Rebekah and a member of the Woman's Relief Corps.

SAFETY BOARD WILL MEET TONIGHT

Member Says Saulsbury Should Demand a Trial If He Is Not Guilty.

The regular meeting of the board of public safety will be held this evening. So far as is known there will be nothing of importance before the body. The regular monthly bills will be ordered paid and the routine business will come up. It is not known whether the Saulsbury case will be mentioned at the meeting.

One of the members stated this morning that the suspended officer should above all things demand a trial on the charges preferred against him by Chief Wyman, if he believes himself able of proving his innocence. The member further stated that a trial would be simply carrying out the duty of the board, if it is demanded by the officer and that the board will consider the testimony offered with all fairness.

"The sugar production is said to be surpassed by that of no other country save Hawaii in quantity, and it is more profitable to the producers, for the reason that seven to ten crops are the result of one planting, whereas Hawaii planters get only two."—John K. Pollard, U. S. Consul-General to Monterey, Mexico.

A table of the "Hawaiian Annual" gives a list of plantations, and their present value. There are eight plantations ranging from 1,200 to 18,000 acres each, and at present value of the stock they are worth from $572 to $1,455 per acre.

"The average yield of tobacco, per acre, throughout the Republic is 400 pounds, cost of producing, $25 per acre and gives an income of $600 per acre, a profit of $575 silver, or $287.50 gold per acre."—Bureau of American Republics.

TOWNSHIP CONSTABLE

Numerous Candidates for the Vacancy, But No One Selected Yet.

The township trustees are yet undetermined as to who they will appoint to fill the place of ex-Constable William Copestick, resigned. They have a long list of aspirants under consideration, but are not ready to make a choice.

Like 'Squire Rose they want to choose a man capable and worthy of the position. They will likely decide upon a veteran of the civil war if one can be found who wants it and is also capable.

Residents in the East End, the West End, Calcutta road and Pleasant Heights all have favorites and have solicited the trustees, but no action has been taken.

It was thought for a while that 'Squire Rose must do the appointing, but that was soon found to be without foundation. The trustees will make the decision within a few days.

UNIVERSITY IN ASHES.

Two Probably Fatally Injured—One Missing—Loss $500,000.

Ottawa, Ont., Dec. 3.—The Ottawa university, one of the largest educational institutions in Canada, was totally destroyed by fire. The loss is estimated at $500,000, with insurance of $200,000. All of the students escaped.

Three priests were forced to jump from upper windows and were badly injured. They are: Fathers Boyon, Fullham and McGurty. Father McGurty probably is fatally hurt. One of the domestics is missing and is believed to have perished in the flames and another was so seriously burned that she may die. The missing woman, a Miss Danis, was last seen on the first floor.

The fire, it is believed, was caused by a careless smoker throwing a lighted cigar or cigarette into flammable material.

POSTAL STATISTICS

Annual Report of Fourth Assistant Postmaster General Bristow.

MAKES FEW RECOMMENDATIONS

Wants Rural Carriers' Salaries Increased—Several Thousand Additional Routes to Be Established—Fair Play for Honest Competition.

Washington, Dec. 3.—The annual report of Fourth Assistant Postmaster General Bristow for the fiscal year ended June 30 last makes the following recommendations:

An appropriation to construct inspectors' lookouts in postoffices wherever necessary in the opinion of the postmaster general; that the interstate commerce law be amended so as to prohibit common carriers from aiding and abetting in the green goods, lottery or any other scheme, carried on partly by mail and partly by common carrier, in violation of the postal laws; that special agents and route inspectors be hereafter designated as rural agents; that the provision that rural carriers shall not be prohibited from doing an express package business be repealed; that the maximum of a rural carrier be increased to $750 per annum for a route of 25 miles or more in length, and the enactment of a law requiring assistant postmasters, cashiers and other employees to give bonds to postmasters direct and holding postmasters responsible under their own bonds.

Cost of Free Delivery. The estimated expenditure for both city and rural free delivery service during the fiscal year beginning July 1 next will aggregate about $47,000,000.

There were 15,961 appointments of postmasters during the year and the removals of postmasters for cause showed a decrease. There were 4,462 postoffices discontinued, of which 2,163 resulted from the extension of rural free delivery.

On July 1 last there were 74,169 postoffices, of which 242 were first-class, 1,197 second-class, 3,690 third-class and 69,130 fourth-class. City free delivery service was established during the year at 99 postoffices, making a total of 1,032 free delivery offices.

There are now in operation 19,393 rural free delivery routes. It is estimated that 3,269 additional routes can be established out of the appropriation now available, making 22,673, which will be in operation or ordered established by March 1, 1904. To maintain the service in these routes during the fiscal year from July 1, 1904, to June 30, 1905, will require $13,560,000.

Private Gain in Public Service. Mr. Bristow's report further says: "An investigation, which is still in progress, has shown that for a number of years supplies for the free delivery service have not been purchased with an eye single to the public interests. Both in the matter of quality and the cost of equipment the ruling consideration has been private gain. This applies to articles furnished under regular contract, such as street collection boxes and carriers' satchels, as well as to those bought in the open market under emergency privilege, which has been much abused."

"Favored contractors, abetted by a trusted but unfaithful official, have corrupted the public service. An early and thorough reformation will be undertaken along the line of service equipment with the prospective result of improved service at reduced cost. Fraudulent contracts have been abrogated. In the retelling of contracts honest competition will have fair and free play."

RUMORS OF REDUCTION.

Official of Mine Workers Has Heard Nothing of It.

Indianapolis, Dec. 3.—Vice President Thomas Lewis, of the United Mine Workers, said in regard to a Chicago report that a wholesale reduction of miners' wages was contemplated in Illinois, Indiana, Ohio and western Pennsylvania, that he had heard nothing of it.

"When we meet the operators in joint conference," he said, "we expect that the representatives of our organization will be prepared to meet every argument presented by the operators at that time. I am not looking for any trouble and in my opinion the operators will hesitate before they attempt to enforce any drastic measures."

MARRIED BY PROXY.

Beautiful Cuban Arrives in New York to Greet Husband.

New York, Dec. 3.—Mrs. Rafael Lopez, a Cuban of unusual beauty and some wealth, arrived in New York from her native land to greet her husband, to whom she had been married by proxy on Nov. 19 last. Rafael Lopez, the groom, was at that time in this country and she was in Cuba. Lopez met the young woman while on a visit to his father's home in Cuba. She was Anna Rosa Fernandez y Wegener, an orphan.

They became engaged and plans were made for a wedding, which was to have taken place several months ago. Owing to deaths in the family the young girl's wedding had to be postponed and young Lopez was forced to return to the United States. Then it was decided to have the marriage ceremony performed in Cuba, the groom's father acting as his proxy and giving the usual pledges and signing the marriage contract for his son. Young Lopez is a mechanical engineer employed in Paterson, N. J.

"Rain of Blood" Phenomenon.

Rome, Dec. 3.—The phenomenon known as the "rain of blood" was noticed near Salerno during the fearful weather of the past few days, the raindrops being so red as to leave a stain resembling blood. This phenomenon is said to come from Sahara after a severe windstorm, the sand of the desert being carried by the wind across the sea and mixing with the rain as it falls. This form of the phenomenon is somewhat rare, although it reached as far as Rome three years ago.

Recommendations Cost Money.

Omaha, Dec. 3.—The federal grand jury resumed the investigation of alleged conspiracy and bribery in connection with Nebraska postoffice appointments. The cases under consideration are those of Alma and Orleans, in which it is thought to establish before the grand jury that Senator Dietrich informed all applicants that appointment would be made on the recommendation of Elliot Lowe, a member of the legislature from Harlan county, and that Lowe asked for and received money for his recommendations. The testimony of two bank cashiers of Alma showed that Postmaster Mitchell borrowed $1,000 about the time of his appointment as postmaster of Alma.

Dr. Cyrus Edson Dead.

New York, Dec. 3.—Dr. Cyrus Edson, son of former Mayor Franklin Edson, is dead of pneumonia in the Roosevelt hospital. He was born in Albany in 1857. He was state commissioner of health in 1893 and held various positions in the health board and pharmacy board in New York city. Dr. Edson was the author of many articles on medical and sanitary subjects and was also the inventor of many useful surgical instruments.

Wage Reduction Ordered.

Joliet, Ill., Dec. 3.—A reduction of from 5 to 10 per cent in wages was ordered in all the wire mills of the United States Steel company, affecting 1,000 men.

THIRTY-ONE NOW DEAD

Four More Victims Claimed by Epidemic in Butler—New Cases Multiply.

Butler, Pa., Dec. 3.—Four deaths from typhoid was Wednesday's record, 31 being the total number of deaths from the epidemic to date. Many new cases developed, but the number cannot be estimated, as the health authorities are keeping no record. It is the opinion of those best posted that the epidemic has not reached its height, and it is claimed that the local authorities are taking a too hopeful view of the situation. The deaths were as follows:

Peter McLaughlin, Mercer street, aged 42; leaves a wife and four children.

Mrs. Mary Cooney, Maple avenue, 24 years old; leaves husband and three children.

Walter Ruesser, a Slav, Red row, aged 5 months.

Mrs. Barbara Zaluski, a Slav, Priest's row; typhoid pneumonia.

Dr. Henderson J. Nelly was taken ill with typhoid fever and two of his children also have it. Dr. McClung, of New York, has arrived and is taking care of Dr. Nelly's patients.

Father Daniel Walsh, of St. Paul's Catholic church, is among those in an extremely critical condition. Some of the new victims reported could not be reached by the doctors in their rounds. In one family the mother, daughter and son-in-law were all ill. Two physicians stated that they thought the worst stage of the epidemic was passed and that from this time on fewer cases would develop. The number of new cases is at least 12 or 14.

Murderer Saved Life of Another.

Columbus, O., Dec. 3.—One condemned murderer saved the life of another at the penitentiary annex. Louis Harmon, sentenced to death for complicity in the murder of George Geyer, an Alton farmer, last summer, tried to hang himself with a rope made of his bed clothing. Michael Schiller, the Youngstown wife murderer, heard the noise made by Harmon and called the guards in time to save the would-be suicide. Prior to his attempt at self-destruction Harmon tried to murder John Fogle, his guard.

Discuss Proposed Wage Reduction.

Cumbeftand, Md., Dec. 3.—Officials of the United Mine Workers met here and discussed the proposed 10-cent reduction of the 3,000 men in the Meyersdale field. The latter are much disturbed, claiming the reduction is a violation of a verbal agreement with the operators that the 65-cent rate should prevail during the scale year. A final meeting will be held at Meyersdale next week. It is feared the reduction will be followed by a strike.

Earthquake Shock Felt.

Efingham, Ill., Dec. 3.—An earthquake shock lasting several seconds, was distinctly felt here.

DR. HENLEY'S CELERY, BEEF AND IRON

For the Nerves.

Nervousness.—This condition requires no extended description to acquaint one of its nature and effects. A nervous person is a miserable person, no matter what his surroundings may be. Evil imaginings, dark forebodings and melancholy occupy the day and sleeplessness or constantly disturbed sleep is the portion by night until the strength wears out and chronic invalidism is established. DR. HENLEY'S CELERY, BEEF AND IRON is the sovereign remedy. Nervousness and its special manifestations, such as sleeplessness, melancholy, unrest, mind-wandering, vacillation of purpose, etc., all of these yield rapidly to the tonic and alternative influence of this remedy.

Alcohol in Liquid Kidney Remedies Congests Kidneys.

Remember this:—Kidney-Wort Tablets CANNOT contain alcohol.

WM. LEWIS, threatened with Bright's Disease, thoroughly Cured.

Sept. 26, 1903, Wm. Lewis, 412 Queen St., Philadelphia, Pa., wrote: "After several physicians and any amount of medicine failed to relieve my kidney trouble, I was thoroughly cured by Dr. Pettingill's Kidney-Wort Tablets. My case was a severe one, and threatened to develop into Bright's disease. Physicians prescribed for me, promising a cure that never came. I had frequent desire to urinate, and suffered much from pain. A friend who had been cured by the Tablets, advised me to give them a trial. My praise for them cannot be too great. I purchased four bottles, and my troubles, from which I had suffered for years, disappeared permanently."

That the public understands the vital importance of procuring a kidney remedy that cannot contain alcohol is shown by the enormous demand at every drug store for Kidney Wort Tablets. If you are in doubt, if your back aches, if you have piercing or burning pains, if your urine is foul, take the safe course and write your symptoms to Consultation Department, 133 College St., Burlington, Vt., and they will advise you free, whether you are in danger or not.

REALM OF SPORTS

SOME OLD STARS IN BASE BALL

Men Who Won Fame on the Diamond Years Ago Still Playing.

LONG SERVICE RECORDS

Of Jimmy Ryan, Cy Young, Tom Daily and Others Whose Names are Familiar to Lovers of the Great American Game Everywhere.

The active career of a ball player, as compared to that of a man in other lines of business, is not a long one. A review of the players now in the two big leagues, shows that only a small percentage of the number have lasted more than ten seasons, while most of them now prominent in the national sport are of from five to seven years' experience—in the harness long enough to be thoroughly versed in all the ins and outs of the game, and yet not too old to be lithe and agile.

Jimmy Ryan, of Washington, is papa to them all. It was the fall of 1885 when James came to Chicago, and every fan knows of his subsequent career. Ed Deleahanty, of the Senators, up to his death, had been in service for about 15 years, and Kip Seibach, the local player, has been in the game for about ten.

Lave Cross is the antique of the Athletics, and is still a crackerjack, although he was with the real, old-time Athletics in 1886. The grand old man of the Boston Somersets is Charley Farrell, who dates from the old Chicago team of 1887. Cy Young, the mighty pitcher, still a winner, began swinging his arm for Cleveland in 1890.

Tom Daily is the veteran of the Cincinnati Reds and has been in the game since 1887—and is still a good ball player. Jack McCarthy, of the Chicago Nationals, has been in the game for just about ten years. Jim McGuire, of Detroit, was with Philadelphia in 1886, so he can plead guilty to being in his 17th year of fast company.

New York's aged heroes are two all stars—Herman Long and Clark Griffith. Long came in during the Brotherhood year and Griffith in 1893. Jack O'Connor, now of St. Louis, and well known here in Columbus, where he has been back-stopping since 1890, and is still a king-pin catcher.

Joe Sugden, of the Browns, first hit the big procession in 1893. Jesse Burkett, the crab, is the oldest of the St. Louis mob, having been with New York in 1890.

Malachi Kittredge is the oldest of the Washington players. He came in to fast company in 1890, and is still a great catcher and worth big money to any team. Brooklyn has two veterans in Doyle and Dahlen. Doyle came into the American association about 1890, and Dahlen, when only 18 years old, broke into the old Anson team in Brotherhood year. Doyle is now somewhat passe, and there is not much talk of Dahlen these days, although he is still a corking good infielder.

Womanly Health, Strength and Beauty

Strength and beauty in woman depend entirely upon her health. A woman can look her best if suffering from one or more of the many ailments peculiar to her sex. These ailments invariably cause, sooner or later, the loss of her symmetry of form and freshness of complexion.

AUNT DINAH'S OLD VIRGINIA Herb Tea

Makes Strong and Beautiful Women.

It is a most pleasant and effective remedy for the troubles which cause so much suffering among women the world over. It relieves immediately and eventually cures all cases of disordered menstruation, female weakness, prostration, chronic constipation, sick head aches, nervousness and sleeplessness. These are the ailments which deprive a woman of her youth and beauty and make her old before her time. The use of the Herb Tea will enable her to retain her youth and beauty, clear the complexion and improve the form. A cupful at bed time will give a woman health and strength.

Chicago, April 19, 1903.

Hamlins Wizard Oil Co., Chicago, Ill. Gentlemen—My wife had been suffering with female weakness and extreme nervousness which latter the physician who has been attending her for a long time attributed to her being unable to sleep. After trying about all night she would invariably rise in the morning with a terrible headache. The doctor seemed to be able to do nothing for her and she was constantly getting worse. She decided to try your Herb Tea and drink a cupful before retiring. In the morning she arose after a good night's rest without a headache and the first time in months. She has continued taking it during the past three months and has forgotten what a sleepless night means. She is feeling splendid and every one remarks how well she is looking. Her complexion is as clear as a young girl's and her figure has improved wonderfully. Yours truly,

Joe Kelly, of the Reds, had a try-out in big company in 1891, and came back about 1893. Jake Beckley has been with the stars since 1888, and Tom Corcoran was a Brotherhood discovery. Bill Phillips was with Pittsburgh in 1890, and came back to fast company about 1893. New York's dean is the good old veteran, George Van Haltren, who played a few games in the National league in 1886, and became a regular Chicago player in 1887.

Billy Hallman, of the Phillies, has been a major league player since about 1887. Chief Zimmer, the Quaker manager, has seen about the same amount of service.

Roaring Bill Kennedy, of Pittsburgh, has been shooting them over for about ten seasons in fast company. Patsy Donovan, of St. Louis, butted into the stellar ranks in 1890, and Jack Ryan has seen about as many campaigns. The old players are going though, and giving way to younger blood.

NO SPECULATION IN BASKET BALL SEATS

Reports That Scalpers Were at Work Denied, But Precautions Have Been Taken.

While the story that the seats to the basket ball contest last Tuesday night were gobbled up by scalpers is vigorously denied by those in position to know, it is nevertheless a fact that many tickets were sold at an advanced price. Seats for which 35 cents were paid sold later for $1 and in some cases more. One block of 50 seats was sold to one party, who claims that he was acting as commissioner for that number of people who could not find time to get the seats for themselves. Seats in lots of 6, 8 and 10 were often sold.

It is hardly likely that anybody divined what a demand would be made for seats and bought them up for speculation. Those who bought seats early sold them again at an advanced price and remained at home, better satisfied with the profit on the transaction than in seeing the game.

To avoid speculation on the tickets, Manager Gallimore has decided that no more than eight tickets will be sold to any one person, and a close tab will be kept to prevent the scalpers boosting up the price.

That such a condition could exist attests to the popularity of the game as conducted by Manager Gallimore and his players. It is not often that a crowd of 1,500 people turn out here to see any sort of an athletic contest.

CAME WILL BE HOSPITAL BENEFIT

Noted Players Will Be in the Lineup of Both Hollenden and Belmont Clubs.

The Belmont-Hollenden game, scheduled for next Saturday at West End park, is going to prove one of the biggest events of the season. The two teams have agreed to play for the benefit of the hospital association and will make an effort to get out as big an attendance as possible. Both clubs have first-rate teams and the game should prove very interesting.

Some players of note who are to be here on that date will be in the game. Anderson, the local boy who played quarter for Kenyon college this season, will be on the Hollenden eleven, and Law, formerly of W. & J., will play with the Belmonts. Averill, of Marietta, will also play with the Hollendens. This trio will certainly add interest to the game.

There has been considerable friendly rivalry between the two elevens, and the game will be hard fought. The lineup will be announced probably tomorrow.

Roscoe to Play Here.

Manager Challinor, of the Homer Laughlin association team, has booked the Roscoe (Pa.) team at Rock Springs park on Saturday, December 12. The Roscoe aggregation has almost a clear title to the championship of Pennsylvania and the Homer Laughlins will be up against it for sure. They expect to win, however.

Alcohol in Liquid Kidney Remedies Congests Kidneys.
Remember this:—Kidney-Wort Tablets CANNOT contain alcohol.

WM. LEWIS, threatened with Bright's Disease, thoroughly Cured.

Sept. 26, 1903, Wm. Lewis, 412 Queen St., Philadelphia, Pa., writes: "After several physicians and any amount of medicine failed to relieve my kidney trouble, I was thoroughly cured by Dr. Pettingill's Kidney-Wort Tablets. My case was a severe one, and threatened to develop into Bright's disease. Physicians prescribed for me, promising a cure that never came. I had frequent desire to urinate, and suffered much from pain. A friend who had been cured by the Tablets, advised me to give them a trial. My praise for them cannot be too great. I purchased four bottles, and my troubles, from which I had suffered for years, disappeared permanently."

That the public understands the vital importance of procuring a kidney remedy that cannot contain alcohol is shown by the enormous demand at every drug store for Kidney-Wort Tablets. If you are in doubt, if your back aches, if you have piercing or burning pains, if your urine is foul, take the safe course and write your symptoms to Consultation Department, 133 College St., Burlington, Vt., and they will advise you free, whether you are in danger or not.

REALM OF SPORTS

SOME OLD STARS IN BASE BALL

Men Who Won Fame on the Diamond Years Ago Still Playing.

LONG SERVICE RECORDS

Of Jim, my Ryan, Cy Young, Tom Daily and Others Whose Names are Familiar to Lovers of the Great American Game Everywhere.

The active career of a ball player, as compared to that of a man in other lines of business, is not a long one. A review of the players now in the two big leagues, shows that only a small percentage of the number have lasted more than ten seasons, while most of them now prominent in the national sport are of from five to seven years' experience—in the harness long enough to be thoroughly versed in all the ins and outs of the game, and yet not too old to be lithe and agile.

Jimmy Ryan, of Washington, is papa to them all. It was the fall of 1885 when James came to Chicago, and every fan knows of his subsequent career. Ed. Deleahanty, of the Senators, up to his death, had been in service for about 15 years, and Kip Selbach, the local player, has been in the game for about ten.

Lave Cross is the antique of the Athletics, and is still a crackerjack, although he was with the real, old-time Athletics in 1886. The grand old man of the Boston Somersets is Charley Farrell, who dates from the old Chicago team of 1887. Cy Young, the mighty pitcher, still a winner, began swinging his arm for Cleveland in 1890.

Tom Daily is the veteran of the Cincinnati Reds and has been in the game since 1887—and is still a good ball player. Jack McCarthy, of the Chicago Nationals, has been in the game for just about ten years. Jim McGuire, of Detroit, was with Philadelphia in 1886, so he can plead guilty to being in his 17th year of fast company.

New York's aged heroes are two all stars—Herman Long and Clark Griffith. Long came in during the Brotherhood year and Griffith in 1893. Jack O'Connor, now of St. Louis, and well known here in Columbus, where he used to catch in the olden days, has been back-stopping since 1890, and is still a king-pin catcher.

Joe Sugden, of the Browns, first hit the fast procession in 1893. Jesse Burkett, the crab, is the oldest of the St. Louis mob, having been with New York in 1890.

Malachi Kittredge is the oldest of the Washington players. He came in to fast company in 1890, and is still a great catcher and worth big money to any team. Brooklyn has two veterans in Doyle and Dahlen. Doyle came into the American association about 1890, and Dahlen, when only 18 years old, broke into the old Anson team in Brotherhood year. Doyle is now somewhat passe, and there is not much talk of Dahlen these days, although he is still a corking good infielder.

Womanly Health, Strength and Beauty

Strength and beauty in woman depend entirely upon her health. A woman cannot look her best if suffering from one or more of the many ailments peculiar to her sex. These ailments invariably cause, sooner or later, the loss of her symmetry of form and freshness of complexion.

AUNT DINAH'S OLD VIRGINIA Herb Tea

Makes Strong and Beautiful Women.

It is a most pleasant and effective remedy for the troubles which cause so much suffering among women of the world over. It relieves immediately and eventually cures all cases of disordered menstruation, female weakness, prostration, chronic constipation, sick head aches, nervousness and sleeplessness. These are the ailments which deprive a woman of her youth and beauty and make her old before her time. The use of the Herb Tea will enable her to retain these qualities. It clears the complexion and improves the form. A cupful at bed time will give a woman health and strength.

Chicago, April 19, 1903.
Gentlemen:—My wife had been suffering with female weakness and extreme nervousness which latter the physician who has been attending her for a long time attributed to her being unable to sleep. After resting about all night she would invariably rise in the morning with a terrible headache. The doctor seemed to be able to do nothing for her and she was constantly getting worse. She decided to try your Herb Tea and drank a cupful before retiring. In the morning she arose after a good night's rest and without a headache for the first time in months. She has continued taking it during the past three months and has forgotten what a sleepless night means. She is feeling splendid and every one remarks how well she is looking. Her complexion is as clear as a young girl's and her figure has improved wonderfully.

Joe Kelly, of the Reds, had a try-out in big company in 1891, and came back about 1893. Jake Beckley has been with the stars since 1888, and Tom Corcoran was a Brotherhood discovery. Bill Phillips was with Pittsburgh in 1890, and came back to fast company about 1893. New York's dean is the good old veteran, George Van Haltren, who played a few games in the National league in 1886, and became a regular Chicago player in 1887. Billy Hallman, of the Phillies, has been a major league player since about 1887. Chief Zimmer, the Quaker manager, has seen about the same amount of service.

Roaring Bill Kennedy, of Pittsburgh, has been shooting them over for about ten seasons in fast company. Patsy Donovan, of St. Louis, butted into the stellar ranks in 1890, and Jack Ryan has seen about as many campaigns. The old players are going though, and giving way to younger blood.

NO SPECULATION IN BASKET BALL SEATS

Reports That Scalpers Were at Work Denied, But Precautions Have Been Taken.

While the story that the seats to the basket ball contest last Tuesday night were gobbled up by scalpers is vigorously denied by those in position to know, it is nevertheless a fact that many tickets were sold at an advanced price. Seats for which 35 cents were paid sold later for $1 and in some cases more. One block of 50 seats was sold to one party, who claims that he was acting as commissioner for that number of people who could not find time to get the seats for themselves. Seats in lots of 6, 8 and 10 were often sold.

It is hardly likely that anybody divided what a demand would be made for seats and bought them up for speculation. Those who bought seats early sold them again at an advanced price and remained at home, better satisfied with the profit on the transaction than in seeing the game.

To avoid speculation on the tickets, Manager Gallimore has decided that no more than eight tickets will be sold to any one person, and a close tab will be kept to prevent the scalpers boosting up the price.

That such a condition could exist attests to the popularity of the game as conducted by Manager Gallimore and his players. It is not often that a crowd of 1,500 people turn out here to see any sort of an athletic contest.

GAME WILL BE HOSPITAL BENEFIT

Noted Players Will Be in the Lineup of Both Hollenden and Belmont Clubs.

The Belmont-Hollenden game, scheduled for next Saturday at West End park, is going to prove one of the biggest events of the season. The two teams have agreed to play for the benefit of the hospital association and will make an effort to get out as big an attendance as possible. Both clubs have first-rate teams and the game should prove very interesting.

Some players of note who are to be here on that date will be in the game. Anderson, the local boy who played quarter for Kenyon college this season, will be on the Hollenden eleven, and Law, formerly of W. & J., will play with the Belmonts. Averill, of Marietta, will also play with the Hollendens. This trio will certainly add interest to the game.

There has been considerable friendly rivalry between the two elevens, and the game will be hard fought. The lineup will be announced probably tomorrow.

Roscoe to Play Here.

Manager Challinor, of the Homer Laughlin association team, has booked the Roscoe (Pa.) team at Rock Springs park on Saturday, December 12. The Roscoe aggregation has almost a clear title to the championship of Pennsylvania and the Homer Laughlins will be up against it for sure. They expect to win, however.

class. He may be pitted against Yanger at an early date at one of the Chicago clubs.

The girls' basket ball team of Beaver college promises to be an exceptionally fast aggregation this year. No less than 20 fair maidens are trying for the team.

Connie Mack is up against a queer proposition for next season. He has agreed to pay Rube Waddell $5,000 for his work, with these provisions: That the Rube must pitch 40 games to get the money, and that as soon as the 40 games are pitched the Rube is free for the rest of the year. Rube will make Connie's life a burden trying to get in those 40 games in a hurry.

A Timely Suggestion.

This is the season of the year when the prudent and careful housewife replenishes her supply of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is certain to be needed before the winter is over, and results are much more prompt and satisfactory when it is kept at hand and given as soon as the cold is contracted and before it has become settled in the system. In almost every instance a severe cold may be ward off by taking this remedy freely as soon as the first indication of the cold appears. There is no danger in giving it to children, for it contains no harmful substance. It is pleasant to take—both adults and children like it. Buy it and you will get the best. It always cures. Sold by Alvin H. Bulger.

When you ask for Mrs. Austin's Pancake flour, insist upon having it and not some substitute. Say Mrs. Austin's and no other.

Climatic Cures.

The influence of climatic conditions in the cure of consumption is very much overdrawn. The poor patient, and the rich patient, too, can do much better at home by proper attention to food digestion, and a regular use of German Syrup. Free expectoration in the morning is made certain by German Syrup, so is a good night's rest and the absence of that weakening cough and debilitating night sweat. Restless nights and the exhaustion due to coughing, the greatest danger and dread of the consumptive, can be prevented or stopped by taking German Syrup liberally and regularly. Should you be able to go to a warmer climate, you will find that the thousands of consumptives there, the few who are benefited and regain strength are those who use German Syrup. Trial bottles, 25c; regular size, 75c. At all druggists.

A MAN CAN'T swim in shackles.

It isn't a question of his winning a race, but a question of being able only to keep afloat. The man who is suffering from malnutrition is like the flustered swimmer. His stomach and its allied organs of digestion and nutrition are diseased. It is not a question with him of winning the race for business but of simply keeping up under any circumstances. Whenever disease affects the stomach it is affecting also the blood and the health of every organ of the body. For blood is only food converted into nutrition and nutrition is the life of the body and every organ of it.

Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It purifies the blood and enables the perfect nutrition of the body which means perfect health.

"For six long years I suffered with indigestion and my liver and kidneys, which led to the best doctors in our country," writes E. L. Russell, Esq., of Woolsey, Prince William Co., Va. "I suffered with my stomach and back for a long time and after taking a 'cart-load' of medicine from three doctors I grew so bad I could hardly do a day's work. I would have death-like pains on the side, and blind spells. I began taking Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and Pleasant Pellets. Before I had taken half of the second bottle I began to feel relieved. I got six more bottles and used them, and am happy to say I owe my life to Dr. Pierce."

Accept no substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery." There is nothing "just as good" for diseases of the stomach, blood and lungs.

No Life, No Energy, No Ambition

These are common expressions nowadays and the finger points that point with unfailing accuracy to the nervous system robbed of its vitality by overwork, worry or excesses of some kind.

That any one should allow this condition to go on to complete mental, physical or sexual ruin, as it surely must if neglected, is a positive crime when a cure is at hand in BAR-BEN, New Food—a medicine designed expressly for this condition, a medicine that cures today cured by increasing the circulation, strengthening the kidneys, and purifying and rebuilding the system building up the very essentials of life—NERVE FORCE. It is a great remedy and the nervous, irritable, weak and trembling feelings will disappear. Your sleep will be natural, undisturbed. You will wake mornings feeling strong and vigorous instead of tired. All gloomy depression and sense of doom will fade from your mind; your nerves will become strong and steady as steel; your ambition will be restored and perfect health and strength will take the place of weakness and misery. The testimony of thousands of sufferers who have used BAR-BEN has lifted from this helpless condition of long suffering into the tale of this great remedy more effectively than words can portray.

BLAZING NAPTHA CAR

Explodes in Center of Freight Train—Two Lives Lost.

TRAINMEN ARE BADLY BURNED

General Buildings and Freight Cars Demolished—Accident Attributed to Spontaneous Combustion—Many Citizens Injured.

Dover, Del., Dec. 3.—An explosion of a tank car of naphtha in the center of a freight train on the Delaware division of the Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington railroad caused two deaths, the injuring of a number of persons, the wrecking of several buildings and a number of freight cars. The accident occurred at Greenwood, 25 miles south of this city. The explosion is thought to have resulted from spontaneous combustion. The burning fluid was scattered in all directions.

Fifteen cars were wrecked, three of which were destroyed by fire, and several buildings near the railroad caught fire.

The Dead.
Edward J. Roach, brakeman, of Georgetown; taken from the wreck dead. Infant child, died from shock.

Injured Trainmen.
Engineer B. W. Sheppard, of Wilmington, seriously; inhaled steam and flames.

Conductor Cornelius J. Hall, Wilmington, badly burned.

Fireman John Barker, Wilmington, badly burned.

Towerman Horace Lynch, Greenwood. A dozen or more citizens were injured or suffered seriously from shock.

Of these the condition of Mrs. W. W. Morris is serious.

The telephone and telegraph wires were broken and communication with other towns was impossible. As soon as possible a locomotive was sent back to Seaford and it returned with a special car carrying physicians from Harrington. While the physicians were looking after the injured citizens and trainmen a party of rescuers was at work around the wrecked train and another party directed its efforts to the burning buildings. Despite hard work of the fire fighters the residence of Dr. H. C. Johnson and the public school building were consumed and a dozen other houses were rendered uninhabitable.

Workmen's Wages Reduced.

Youngstown, O., Dec. 3.—The wages of 500 laborers employed at the Ohio works of the Carnegie Steel company have been reduced. Three hundred men employed at the furnaces were reduced 8 1/2 per cent, while 200 workmen employed in the steel plant were reduced 6 2/3 per cent. The men were receiving approximately $2.50 a day.

Aged Recluse Committed Suicide.

Akron, O., Dec. 3.—With Paris green on his face, hands and in his mouth and scattered over the hut in which he lived, David Robenstein, aged 78 years, a local recluse, was found dead. More than $1,000 in old greenbacks was found in a dirty sack under his mattress.

BRIGHTS DISEASE AND DIABETES NEWS

San Francisco, Nov. 26, 1903. To Will Reed's Pharmacy.

Dear Sirs:

There are daily occurrences in this city that ought to be known all over the world. A guileless old gentleman, an octogenarian, a distant relative of Robert Fulton of first steamship fame, saved the lives of hundreds (probably thousands) after they were believed to be beyond human aid. His discovery is undoubtedly the long-sought cure of Bright's disease and diabetes. This is not easy of belief and it is the purpose of a number of business and professional men of this city (of whom I am one) to tell the people. You are hereby authorized to tell all those in your city who have either Bright's Disease or Diabetes that nearly nine-tenths of them can recover. Among the business men who are giving moral and financial support and who would give neither if the above was not strictly true are Hon. D. M. Burns, President Candelaria. Mining Company; Edward Mills, President Bullock & Jones Company; Captain Roberts, President Boca and Loyalton R. R. Co.; Thos. Kirpatrick, Capitalist; D. E. Bender, Capitalist; Wm. Sharp, Capitalist; W. C. Price, Capitalist, and many others. The pamphlets herewith are to be given to all inquirers without charge. They give the complete history of our long and exhaustive investigation.

Yours truly,

A. E. SHATTUCK.

A NEW REMEDY FOR TYPHOID FEVER

DILUTED CARBOLIC ACID SAID TO BE VERY EFFECTUAL.

It Is Proposed That It Be Tried At Butler, Pa., to Stay the Epidemic.

In connection with the epidemic of typhoid now raging in Butler, Pa., and those lately prevalent in Cleveland, Pittsburg and other large cities, the Pittsburg Dispatch makes an announcement that is interesting and may prove to be important. The paper quotes a physician of that city to the effect that he has found a remedy which, in seven years' practice, has never failed to break up typhoid fever in its early stages. The Dispatch, moreover, has positive knowledge of two cases in which the remedy proved effective.

Seven years ago, says the paper, the physician in question saw in a medical journal a letter from a New England country practitioner which recounted the success which he had experienced in breaking up typhoid fever in its early stages with small doses of largely diluted carbolic acid. The prevailing belief in medical circles was that an internal antiseptic condition could not be induced. The Pittsburg physician, on the contrary, believed that the infected system could be sterilized and his experience of seven years has convinced him that he made no mistake. The treatment is as follows:

"The dose of carbolic acid is from five drops for an adult—and even up to ten in severe cases—down to one or two drops for small children, given every two or three hours in ordinary cases and hourly in severe ones. It is taken in two ounces of water for each dose, and positive stress is laid on the dilution in order to disseminate the antiseptic effect of the carbolic acid as widely as possible. For the same reason a liquid diet is insisted on for the patient, as any solid food may interfere with the effect of the acid on the germs. Of course, the details should be under the advice of a competent physician. The experience of this physician does not cover any test of carbolic acid as a preventive of typhoid, since in ordinary practice the infection is rarely suspected till the actual appearance of the disease. But in a case like that of Butler, where all who have drunk the raw water are in danger of infection, he is certain from the logic of the subject that a drop or two of carbolic acid taken in two ounces of water three times a day will prove an efficient prophylactic."

For reasons that will be obvious to the medical fraternity the physician refuses to permit the use of his name, but the paper offers the suggestion and experience for what they are worth, vouching for the fact that in the cases of two members of its staff the treatment was effective. The Butler epidemic furnishes a fine field for testing the remedy. There is nothing to lose and much to gain, and if it shall prove to be effective a distinct forward step will have been taken in combating a fearful scourge.

ROOSEVELT'S LOVE FOR ATHLETICS

His Old Teacher Relates Interesting Reminiscences of the President's School Days.

When Theodore Roosevelt came home from Europe with the other members of his father's family in 1873, he immediately began preparation for college under the direction of Arthur H. Cutler, who was running a private school for boys. He completed in two years what usually occupied three. His parents laid emphasis on mathematics, elementary science, Latin and history, while modern languages were studied under native teachers. He was compelled to keep up his studies at Oyster Bay during the summer, although it was not so severe as in the city during the rest of the year.

Mr. Cutler says of those days: "How much informal study there was President Roosevelt alone can tell, for his mind was attracted in many directions then as now. The young man never seemed to know what idleness was, and every leisure moment would find the last novel, some English classic or some book on natural history in his hand.

"This study of natural history was his chief recreation. He had an unusually large collection of birds and small animals, shot and mounted by himself, and ranging in habitat from Egypt to the woods of Pennsylvania. "In his excursions outside the city his rifle was always with him, and the outfit of a taxidermist was in use on every camping trip."

When the question of outdoor athletics was broached, Mr. Cutler said: "Roosevelt rode horseback much and well; he boxed well, he shot well, and he was the fleetest of his mates in their football races. He seemed to have less interest in sailing than

SUDDENLY CRAZED

Seized With Madness While at Work And Threatened Death to Several People.
Steubenville, December 3.—Friends of Operator Collins, formerly of the Brilliant W. & L. E. station were apprised that he had become insane and would have to be sent to an asylum. For some time Collins has been employed as operator at Valley Junction on the W. & L. E., but there was never anything happened that showed he was mentally ill until Monday night, when he suddenly became mentally deranged and pulled all the plugs out of the switchboard, rendering all the wires useless, and plugged the interlocking switches. He then barred the doors and flourishing a revolver threatened death to anyone who interfered.

CAME VERY NEAR FREEZING TO DEATH

A Southside Man Had a Terrible Experience in This City and Was Fined.

Nearly frozen to death, every limb being stiff and his life's blood on the verge of coagulation, a man giving his name as Joe Miller and his home as Chester, was found lying prostrate in Church alley at 1:30 o'clock yesterday morning. Officer Aufderheide happened to see him, rescued him and took him to the police station.

Though Miller recalls little of his terrible experience, he thinks he was trying to find a Southside street car when he wandered into the alley and becoming suddenly numb, fell over on his face to the ground and after that he knew nothing. According to his recollection he must have fallen early in the evening, and this is thought to be true from the condition he was in when found by the officer.

A charge of drunkenness was placed against him at central station and yesterday morning when Mayor Weaver went to his cell to see if he was in condition for a hearing, he discovered that the man was still suffering from the effects of the drink and weather, being unable even then to tell his name or anything about his escapade. The mayor was considerably alarmed over Miller's condition and gave orders to keep him under close surveillance for fear he might die. During the afternoon yesterday, the man commenced to revive, however, and this morning was all right for dismissal. The mayor fined him $2 and costs, trusted him for the amount, and sent him to Chester.

POSITION OF SOLICITOR NOT UPHELD BY COURT

section 150, providing for the appointment of additional firemen and other officers for temporary service, it is specified that these persons need not be in the classified list of such department. Now, if the classified list means the list of incumbents referred to in section 158, these persons would be already in the service and could not be appointed as extras, and the proviso of section, stating that these extra men need not be in the classified list, would be a foolish and inconsistent stipulation.

"The holding of the court therefore is that the classified list from which the appointment of chief of police is to be made, is the register to be made up and prepared by the board of public safety from the result of the examinations made by said board, and if John W. Wyman was eligible to take this examination, and if the result of that examination showed him to be one of the three candidates standing highest upon the register, the board of public safety would have no option but to certify his name to the mayor for appointment, unless the provisions which require that, in all cases where it is practicable, vacancies shall be filled by promotion, makes it incumbent upon them to withhold such certificate, which is the third ground to which I have heretofore referred.

"Section 155 of the code providing for promotions in the classified service, says:

"The board shall, by its rules, provide for the promotions in the classified service, on the basis of ascertained merit, and seniority in service, and on examination, and shall provide in all cases where it is practicable, that vacancies shall be filled by promotion. Examinations for promotions may be competitive or non-competitive, as the board may determine, among members of the next lower rank, and it shall be the duty of the board to submit to the mayor the names of not more than three applicants having the highest rating for each promotion.

RULES GOVERNING THE EXAMINATIONS

"The method of examination and the rules governing the same and the method of certifying shall be the same as provided for applicants for original appointment." From this provision it would seem that there is a distinction between examinations for original appointment and examinations for promotions, and inasmuch as no examination for promotion has yet been held, it is not necessary that the court should now determine what the duty of the board might be after such an examination had been made, but it is sufficient to say here, as was intimated in the opinion on the demurrer in this case, that the court would not interfere with the discretion of any board or mayor as to the practicability of an appointment, in the absence of testimony showing fraud or bad faith upon the part of the officers charged with determining that question.

"The holding of the court thereof is, that inasmuch as there was not sufficient testimony to show that John W. Wyman was ineligible to take the examination, there is no reason why the board of public safety should be enjoined as prayed for in the petition.

"There is another reason why a court of equity could not interfere with the action of this board of public safety, and that is that in this case there has not been sufficient testimony to make it clearly appear that this board of public safety was intending or threatening to certify Wyman to the mayor for appointment.

THE ACTION WAS PREMATURELY BROUGHT.

"It seems from the testimony that on the day the examination was had it was agreed that no further action should be taken until this case should be heard and determined by the court. It appears by the testimony of some members of the board that the grades, while not finally determined, were sufficiently inspected to enable them to say that Wyman and some other applicants had received grades higher than 75 per cent, that being the minimum provided for by the rules of the board; but it also appeared by the testimony that no official report had been received from the medical examiner as to the physical qualifications of applicants, and the board had not yet passed upon their moral qualifications, as they would have to do before placing their names upon the register.

"So that, even if the court had reached a different conclusion as to the law in this case, it would appear that the action was prematurely brought, as this board cannot, in a legal sense, be said to have threatened the certification of any one until they had made up the register and placed the names of candidates thereon, and even then it would seem to be necessary to show, either by words or conduct, an intention to certify the name of the candidate in question. The case might have been disposed of for this reason, but in view of the grave public interests at stake in the matter,

NO OCCASION FOR

RESTRAINING MAYOR

"From this view of the case, even if it were clearly shown that the mayor is threatening to appoint John W. Wyman, if certified, there would be no occasion to restrain him from so doing unless John W. Wyman is ineligible to appointment for the fourth reason to which I have referred, viz., that his appointment would, of itself, reduce in rank and pay some one of the patrolmen. The provision of section 167 that no officer shall be removed or reduced in rank or pay, simply protects the officer in the position he now holds, and does not, of itself, entitle him to promotion or to any special consideration beyond that of resigning his present position.

"The ordinance adopted by council which provided that the police department should only have seven patrolmen, also provided that nothing in the ordinance should be construed so as to reduce in rank or pay any officer then serving. It is claimed that this provision is inconsistent with the organization of the department as made in the former sections of the ordinance, but a little thought shows that these sections can be readily reconciled.

"The ordinance properly construed simply means that so long as the present incumbents of the police force remain in the offices they now hold, the number of patrolmen shall be eight, but that as soon as any one of these shall die, resign or be removed for cause, or be promoted, that hereafter there shall only be seven patrolmen, as provided in the scheme for permanent organization of the department. The council had no power to reduce any one in rank or pay, but had power to make the number as many less as they deemed advisable, but of course the ordinance could not be made effective until the number of old incumbents of the office should be reduced in some one of the methods above referred to.

RIGHTS OF PATROLMEN ARE NOT INVADED

"Putting this construction upon the law, and upon said ordinance, it is clear that the rights of the patrolmen are not invaded by the appointment of any proper person from the classified list to the office of chief of police; and as we have before shown that the classified list is the list of names placed upon the register after examinations are had, as provided for by the code, the conclusion of the court is that the petition in this case should be dismissed at plaintiff's cost and an entry may be made to that effect. If an appeal is desired by plaintiff the appeal bond will be fixed in the sum of $300."

PRETTY WEDDINGS

Two of Them Performed Yesterday Afternoon By Squire H. P. McCarron.

Squire H. P. McCarron performed two pretty wedding ceremonies yesterday afternoon. The first couple were Miss Mary Robinson and Howard Hall, both of Wellsville. The parties are well known young people of the sister city and immediately after the ceremony left for the home of the bride, where they will live for a few days, awaiting the fitting up of a house they have obtained.

The second couple are from this city. They were Miss Charlotte Williams and Arthur Scarlett, both well known and highly respected young people. They will go to housekeeping in the near future.

Fine Program Prepared.

The entertainment which will be given by Rev. Dr. Pratt's Sunday school class of young men, for the trustees of the First M. E. church, will take place next Tuesday evening in the Y. M. C. A. hall. An excellent musical and literary program and a fine menu will be two prominent features of the entertainment. The young men of the class with Prof. Neptune as chairman of the committee, are arranging the program. The refreshments for the evening will be served by the Woman's Home Missionary society of the First M. E. church. Some special decorating will be done for the occasion. Committees have been arranged in the missionary society, which will have charge of various appointments. Miss Florence Updegraff is chairman of a committee to serve refreshments at the entertainment and Mrs. Kober is chairman of the committee for arranging the tables in pretty design.

A Flourishing Society.

That the Woman's Home Missionary society of the First M. E. church is in a flourishing condition is evident from the very large attendance at the afternoon sewing yesterday. The Sunday school room of the church was well filled with ladies, who were eager to aid in the great work being done by this society. There was sewing for everyone present, as the society keeps receiving orders for work. The proceeds are added to the missionary fund, or put to some good purpose, as in the support of a scholarship. Mrs. Frank Crook, who is president of the society, is well repaid for her energetic and untiring efforts as president when she observed the very large and fast increasing membership of the society. While at the sewing yesterday, Mrs. Crook made this statement: "I am very proud of the society, the ladies in it and the great interest they manifest in missionary work." It is a noteworthy fact that the Home Missionary society of the First M. E. church has in it a number of the most intelligent and cultured ladies of the city.

The Whist Club.

The Whist club, which spent an afternoon of unalloyed enjoyment at the home of Mrs. John Manor, will meet in two weeks at the home of Mrs. U. G. King on Thompson hill. At the club meeting yesterday, elegant refreshments were served and Mrs. Manor proved herself an adept hostess.

CAME VERY NEAR FREEZING TO DEATH

A Southside Man Had a Terrible Experience in This City and Was Fined.

Nearly frozen to death, every limb being stiff and his life's blood on the verge of coagulation, a man giving his name as Joe Miller and his home as Chester, was found lying prostrate in Church alley at 1:30 o'clock yesterday morning. Officer Aufderheide happened to see him, rescued him and took him to the police station.

Though Miller recalls little of his terrible experience, he thinks he was trying to find a Southside street car when he wandered into the alley and becoming suddenly numb, fell over on his face to the ground and after that he knew nothing. According to his recollection he must have fallen early in the evening, and this is thought to be true from the condition he was in when found by the officer.

A charge of drunkenness was placed against him at central station and yesterday morning when Mayor Weaver went to his cell to see if he was in condition for a hearing, he discovered that the man was still suffering from the effects of the drink and weather, being unable even then to tell his name or anything about his escapade. The mayor was considerably alarmed over Miller's condition and gave orders to keep him under close surveillance for fear he might die. During the afternoon yesterday, the man commenced to revive, however, and this morning was all right for dismissal. The mayor fined him $2 and costs, trusted him for the amount, and sent him to Chester.

section 150, providing for the appointment of additional firemen and other officers for temporary service, it is specified that these persons need not be in the classified list of such department. Now, if the classified list means the list of incumbents referred to in section 158, these persons would be already in the service and could not be appointed as extras, and the proviso of section, stating that these extra men need not be in the classified list, would be a foolish and inconsistent stipulation.

"The holding of the court therefore is that the classified list from which the appointment of chief of police is to be made, is the register to be made up and prepared by the board of public safety from the result of the examinations made by said board, and if John W. Wyman was eligible to take this examination, and if the result of that examination showed him to be one of the three candidates standing highest upon the register, the board of public safety would have no option but to certify his name to the mayor for appointment, unless the provisions which require that, in all cases where it is practicable, vacancies shall be filled by promotion, makes it incumbent upon them to withhold such certificate, which is the third ground to which I have heretofore referred.

"Section 165 of the code providing for promotions in the classified service, says:

"The board shall, by its rules, provide for the promotions in the classified service, on the basis of ascertained merit, and seniority in service, and on examination, and shall provide in all cases where it is practicable, that vacancies shall be filled by promotion. Examinations for promotions may be competitive or non-competitive, as the board may determine, among members of the next lower rank, and it shall be the duty of the board to submit to the mayor the names of not more than three applicants having the highest rating for each promotion.

RULES GOVERNING THE EXAMINATIONS

"The method of examination and the rules governing the same and the method of certifying shall be the same as provided for applicants for original appointment." From this provision it would seem that there is a distinction between examinations for original appointment and examinations for promotions, and inasmuch as no examination for promotion has yet been held, it is not necessary that the court should now determine what the duty of the board might be after such an examination had been made, but it is sufficient to say here, as was intimated in the opinion on the demurrer in this case, that the court would not interfere with the discretion of any board or mayor as to the practicability of an appointment, in the absence of testimony showing fraud or bad faith upon the part of the officers charged with determining that question.

"The holding of the court thereof is, that inasmuch as there was not sufficient testimony to show that John W. Wyman was ineligible to take the examination, there is no reason why the board of public safety should be enjoined as prayed for in the petition.

"There is another reason why a court of equity could not interfere with the action of this board of public safety, and that is that in this case there has not been sufficient testimony to make it clearly appear that this board of public safety was intending or threatening to certify Wyman to the mayor for appointment.

THE ACTION WAS PREMATURELY BROUGHT.

"It seems from the testimony that on the day the examination was had it was agreed that no further action should be taken until this case should be heard and determined by the court. It appears by the testimony of some members of the board that the grades, while not finally determined, were sufficiently inspected to enable them to say that Wyman and some other applicants had received grades higher than 75 per cent, that being the minimum provided for by the rules of the board; but it also appeared by the testimony that no official report had been received from the medical examiner as to the physical qualifications of applicants, and the board had not yet passed upon their moral qualifications, as they would have to do before placing their names upon the register.

"So that, even if the court had reached a different conclusion as to the law in this case, it would appear that the action was prematurely brought, as this board cannot, in a legal sense, be said to have threatened the certification of any one until they had made up the register and placed the names of candidates thereon, and even then it would seem to be necessary to show, either by words or conduct, an intention to certify the name of the candidate in question. The case might have been disposed of for this reason, but in view of the grave public interests at stake in the matter, and the importance of having some construction put upon this code, I have preferred not to place the decision upon this latter ground, but have considered the question upon its merits. I have been more inclined to do this for the reason that while there was not such direct evidence as would warrant a court in finding that these parties threatened to certify Wyman for appointment, yet the whole atmosphere of the case, and the statements of counsel in argument raises a strong inference that some such action, if not threatened, has at least been considered by the members of the board.

NO OCCASION FOR RESTRAINING MAYOR

"From this view of the case, even if it were clearly shown that the mayor is threatening to appoint John W. Wyman, if certified, there would be no occasion to restrain him from so doing unless John W. Wyman is ineligible to appointment for the fourth reason to which I have referred, viz., that his appointment would, of itself, reduce in rank and pay some one of the patrolmen. The provision of section 167 that no officer shall be removed or reduced in rank or pay, simply protects the officer in the position he now holds, and does not, of itself, entitle him to promotion or to any special consideration beyond that of resigning his present position.

"The ordinance adopted by council which provided that the police department should only have seven patrolmen, also provided that nothing in the ordinance should be construed so as to reduce in rank or pay any officer then serving. It is claimed that this provision is inconsistent with the organization of the department as made in the former sections of the ordinance, but a little thought shows that these sections can be readily reconciled.

"The ordinance properly construed simply means that so long as the present incumbents of the police force remain in the offices they now hold, the number of patrolmen shall be eight, but that as soon as any one of these shall die, resign or be removed for cause, or be promoted, that hereafter there shall only be seven patrolmen, as provided in the scheme for permanent organization of the department. The council had no power to reduce any one in rank or pay, but had power to make the number as many less as they deemed advisable, but of course the ordinance could not be made effective until the number of old incumbents of the office should be reduced in some one of the methods above referred to.

RIGHTS OF PATROLMEN ARE NOT INVADDED

"Putting this construction upon the law, and upon said ordinance, it is clear that the rights of the patrolmen are not invaded by the appointment of any proper person from the classified list to the office of chief of police; and as we have before shown that the classified list is the list of names placed upon the register after examinations are had, as provided for by the code, the conclusion of the court is that the petition in this case should be dismissed at plaintiff's cost and an entry may be made to that effect. If an appeal is desired by plaintiff the appeal bond will be fixed in the sum of $300."
